Foreword by Richard B. Deane

Biblical Pacifism

John Howard Yoder

Biblical Pacifism:

Christian Pacifism in History Geoffrey Fillingham Nuttall, 1971 A clear and concise presentation of the beliefs sustaining Christian pacifists in their refusal to participate in war

Original Revolution John Howard Yoder, 2003-10-13 Jesus created around himself a voluntary society that was counter to everything his society knew or expected Jesus gave his members a new way to deal with offenders with violence with money with leadership with a corrupt society He gave them a new pattern of relationships between man and woman and an enlarged understanding of what it means to be human This is the original revolution the creation of a distinct community with its alternate set of values and its coherent way of incarnating them Such a group is not only a novelty but is also if lived faithfully the most powerful tool of social change

Does the Bible Teach Pacifism? Robert Edward David Clark, 1976

Christian Pacifism and Just War Theory Harold Palmer, 2016-05-31 What did Jesus mean when he said to love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you Do these commandments leave room for Christians to serve in militaries or police forces that implement the use of force Or is the Christian to steadfastly reject violence and embrace pacifism Are certain wars justified on the basis of just war theory or are all wars in their brutality and destruction inherently evil In this study Harold Palmer an attorney examines the case that has traditionally been made to justify Christian participation in war The author begins with a historical background of the roots of just war theory as promulgated by Thomas Aquinas He then examines the passages on which just war theorists rely including God's commandments to the Israelites to go to war against their enemies Jesus' praise of the Roman Army centurion for his faith and God's use of the centurion Cornelius to graft Gentiles into the Kingdom of God Arguing that these passages have been misunderstood he concludes that Christianity only permits a single response to evil self-sacrificial love The author makes a cogent case for Christian pacifism by examining the life of Jesus and arguing that His crucifixion was more than a salvific act it also exemplified the ideal of Christian living Being a disciple of Jesus means emulating Him in every way including responding to violence through self-sacrificial love as Jesus did and obeying Jesus' commands to be as harmless as doves to turn the other cheek and pray for those who persecute you Finally this study tackles the difficult question of Old Testament violence by arguing that it falls within a specific context and is not normative for members of the New Covenant of Grace Rather than embrace violence we are to follow the examples set by the early church and its martyrs including the Apostle Stephen who prayed that his persecutors not be charged with their sins and the apostle Paul who taught us to live peaceably with all men Our war is not a physical struggle but a spiritual war to be waged with prayer faith and the gospel of peace Eph 6:12-18

The Gospel of the Prince of Peace, A Treatise on Christian Pacifism Daniel H. Shubin, 2014-03-14 The message preached by Jesus of Nazareth the Son of God that the essence of the gospel is the deliverance of humanity from its perpetual self-destructive trend of warfare and the many sufferings that result from it This book will also unveil that his message consisted of peaceful coexistence and toleration between people and nations Evidence will also be provided to the reader to testify that the only proper manner for a Christian to conduct himself in the matter of war and military service is to refuse. The author Daniel H Shubin has written in the past a theology and a commentary on the Bible compiled a 4 volume History of Russian Christianity and books on philosophy and religion. Dan was a conscientious objector during the Vietnam War as was his father during World War 2 and also acts as an advisor for military age young men of his denomination. He has been married 41 years to wife AnnaMarie and they have 3 adult offspring.

The Christian and Warfare Jacob J. Enz, 2001-07-30 Without making the Old Testament a pacifist book Enz shows how it prepares the way for the peaceful Messiahship of Jesus in almost every one of its major themes. The book is simple and speaks immediately to every Christian and yet the scholar in the field will recognize a great breadth of learning and a profound scholarly integrity behind almost every apparently simple statement.

Waldemar Janzen in The Mennonite Jacob J Enz Ph D was educated at Bethel College New York Theological Seminary Divinity School of the University of Chicago and received his Ph D from John Hopkins University. A Time to Kill Greg Hopkins, 2013-01-01 This book is about decisions. Not the everyday kind such as What should I wear today or Where shall we eat tonight but decisions dealing with life death and protecting the innocent. The issue of self defense concerns decisions of survival for the individual. It can also decide the fate of a nation and its citizens. Survival is the most basic of instincts. Without it there is no family community culture or state. Unless a person survives he cannot pass down his genes ideas or beliefs. And religious beliefs can affect survival. If Christians are commanded to treat others as they want to be treated would this not include protecting others from criminal attack? Jesus Christ may have had that in mind when he instructed his disciples to acquire a sword before entering the mission field even if that meant trading their cloak for the weapon.

A Time To Kill: The Myth of Christian Pacifism by Greg Hopkins includes chapters about preparation for self defense laws that govern self defense understanding how criminals think recovery from post traumatic stress disorder PTSD biblical appraisals of military and police arguments on criminal punishment and retribution and much more

Love Your Enemies Lisa Sowle Cahill, 1994 The author examines the theological bases of just war theory and pacifism especially in the light of the concept of God as that motif illuminates Christian discipleship. Differences between the theory of just war and the practice of pacifism are highlighted in the overview of the history of Christian thought on the subject and the inclusiveness of the ideal of the kingdom for pacifism is emphasized
