Biddulph Archive Photograph Series:

Biddulph, 1997 This absorbing collection of archive images documents some of the major events and changes that have occurred in Biddulph during the last century This fascinating volume recreates those heady often hard days when men toiled in the coalmines and ironworks and women supplemented the family income spinning cotton and silk Remembered too are the exuberant celebrations and events the recreation and leisure of a close knit community All aspects of everyday life are recalled schools societies church and chapel transport shops men in uniform the Grange and the orthopaedic hospital

Reconstruction Neal Shasore, Jessica Kelly, 2023-02-23 Commendation the Colvin Prize 2023 Society of Architectural Historians of Great Britain Reconstruction explores the impact of the First World War on the built environment examining the immediate and longer term aftermath of the Great War on the architecture of Britain and the British Empire during the interwar years While much attention has been paid by historians to post war architectural reconstruction after 1945 the earlier developments of the interwar period 1919 1939 have been comparatively overlooked This volume reveals how the architectural developments of this period not only provided important foundations for what happened after 1945 they are also of real significance in their own right Sixteen essays written by leading and emerging scholars bring together new and diverse approaches to the period a period of reconstruction fraught with the challenges of modernity and democratisation The collection considers the complex effects of reconstruction on design discourse practice and professionalism and deals with the full spectrum of architectural styles and approaches privileging neither Modernism nor traditional styles like the neo Georgian It brings to the fore social and political histories of the built environment and makes important postcolonial interventions into the architectural history of British Imperialism at home and in its far reaches in Cairo South Africa Australia and India

British Archives Janet Foster, Julia Sheppard, 1995-09-27 Since it was first published in 1982 British Archives has established itself as the premier reference work to holdings of archives and manuscript collections throughout the UK The 3rd edition has been extensively revised and enlarged with more than 150 new entries further widening the range of the book Entries are structured to show the archives of the organisation as distinct from deposited collections and significant non manuscript material and additional details of fax number and conservation provision are included for the first time All the existing entries have been significantly updated together with the select bibliography and list of useful addresses of various organisations involved in the care and custody of archives The introduction provides an invaluable guide to researchers using archives including a summary of the relevant legislation and a detailed description of the usual holdings of county and other local authority record offices
