Wedding Feast of the Lamb Roch A. Kereszty,2004 In this deeply contemplative and meditative study Father Kereszty first places the Eucharist in the universal context of world religions and shows how the Eucharist is God s response to the universal human quest for the perfect sacrifice of thanksgiving expiation and communion Father Kereszty discusses not only the explicit eucharistic texts of the New Testament but demonstrates the role and meaning of the Eucharist within each Gospel within the theology of Paul the letter to the Hebrews and the book of Revelation He highlights forgotten texts and recovers surprising insights from the Fathers that show the link between the Eucharist and mystical experience the presence of all the mysteries of Christ in particular his death Resurrection and his coming in glory in the eucharistic celebration He then carries the lex orandi lex credendi adage to its logical conclusion the liturgical celebration provides the content and the organizing principle for the systematic presentation      The Bridal Banquet Robert Schmidt,2025-10-30 Meals were an important part of Jesus ministry He ate with prostitutes and sinners He told the story of a dinner where the poor and homeless received a special invitation When the prodigal son came home his return was celebrated with feasting Jesus even made sure there was enough wine for a wedding banquet To a skeptical audience he said that he was the very bread of life Then he celebrated the Passover with its rich story of liberation and deliverance It was there that he invited all to receive the blessings of the meals of his ministry In the Lord s Supper believers receive Christ as that bread of life Like the prodigal son and other sinners they are fed and forgiven As in the Passover they are liberated from that which enslaves them There the attention is drawn to the blood of the lamb that has saved all believers now and forever The meals in Jesus ministry were done in the midst of life Might people also bring the blessings of Communion to a church without a pastor a soup kitchen a house church a refugee camp or a prophetic community This book shows how to do just that      The Christian Educator's Handbook on Spiritual Formation Kenneth O. Gangel,James C.
