Dreaming And Scheming Reflections On Writing And Politics:

Dreaming and Scheming Hanif Kureishi, 2002 In the essay The Rainbow Sign which was first published in 1986 along with the screenplay of My Beautiful Laundrette Kureishi recounts how growing up in England where racists weren't discriminating in their racial discrimination he could understand the motives of a black boy who having noticed that burnt skin turned white jumped into a bath of boiling water Then visiting Pakistan for the first time Kureishi shook with incomprehension at the notion that he was not considered a foreigner The collection's title piece is a fascinating account of how Kureishi overcame his educational anorexia how curiosity developed and how school teaching could work if only those at the front of the class didn't loathe their pupils Islamic Postcolonialism Hasan Majed, 2015-09-18 Islamic postcolonialism is a theoretical perspective that combines two components which have up until now existed in a state of tension As a secular theory postcolonialism has notably failed to account for Muslim priorities it has for instance had severe problems critiquing the anti-Islam polemics of The Satanic Verses as is evidenced by Edward Said's support for Rushdie in spite of his criticism of the stereotypical representation of Islam and Muslims in the West Islamic postcolonialism applies the anti-colonial resistant methodology of postcolonialism from a Muslim perspective exploring the continuance of colonial discourse in part of the contemporary western writing about Islam and Muslims This book explores how Islam is depicted and Muslim identities are constructed in four representative works of contemporary British fiction Hanif Kureishi's The Black Album 1995 Monica Ali's Brick Lane 2003 Fadia Faqir's My Name is Salma 2007 and Leila Aboulela's Minaret 2005 Salman Rushdie's The Satanic Verses 1988 is also discussed in terms of its crucial role in fostering what some Muslims might consider polemical and stereotypical positions in writing about Islam Hanif Kureishi Ruvani Ranasinha, 2023-08-29 Original bold and always funny Hanif Kureishi is one of Britain's most popular provocative and versatile writers Born in Bromley in 1954 to an Indian father and white British mother Kureishi's life is intimately bound up with the history of immigration and social change in Britain This is the story of how a mixed-raced child of empire who attended the local comprehensive school found success with a remarkable series of novels and screenplays including My Beautiful Laundrette and The Buddha of Suburbia Intimacy Venus and Le Week End The book also illuminates a larger story not only of the artist as a young man but of the recasting of Britain in the aftermath of decolonisation Drawing on journals letters and manuscripts from Kureishi's unexplored archive recently acquired by the British Library and informed by interviews with his family friends and collaborators as well with the writer himself Ruvani Ranasinha sheds new light on how his life animates his work This first biography offers a vivid portrait of a major talent who has inspired a new generation of writers Postcolonialism and Fiction in English Sheo Bhushan Shukla, 2004 Papers presented at a conference held under the auspices of WASLE and IASCL held at Bhubaneswar in 2003 Hanif Kureishi Susie Thomas, 2017-09-08 Hanif Kureishi is one of the most exciting and controversial British writers who has produced significant work in a range of forms plays essays novels short stories and film This guide introduces and sets in context the key debates about his work and discusses his writing in relation to such issues as gender postcolonial theory and British identity today By exploring Kureishi's own statements and a wide range of critical perspectives the guide provides a comprehensive resource for the study of one of the most important critical figures in contemporary culture

Revolving Around India(s) Juan Ignacio Oliva-Cruz, Antonia Navarro-Tejero, Isabel Sánchez Berriel, 2020-01-21 This book highlights a variety of approaches to the study of contemporary India and offers a transnational gender and social research perspective on the concepts of Indian tradition the representation of the Indian diaspora and the emergent political activism in India The contributions suggest questions and answers about the various temporal and spatial loci inherent to India and its gender and ethnic differences The volume analyses different cultural texts and explores how they refer to equality and interculturality or promote discourses of fear and racism The multiple viewpoints and analyses found in this volume will broaden and stimulate both upcoming outcomes and studies on the future of India

Borders and Border Crossings in the Contemporary British Short Story Barbara Korte, Laura Ma Lojo-Rodríguez, 2020-01-02 This book represents a contribution to both border studies and short story studies In today's world there is ample evidence of the return of borders worldwide as material reality as a concept and as a way of thinking This collection of critical essays focuses on the ways in which the contemporary British short story mirrors questions and engages with border issues in national and individual life At the same time the concept of the border as well as neighbouring notions of liminality and intersectionality is used to illuminate the short story's unique aesthetic potential The first section Geopolitics and Grievable Lives includes chapters that address the various ways in which contemporary stories engage with our newly bordered world and borders within contemporary Britain The second section examines how British short stories engage with Ethnicity and Liminal Identities while the third Animal Encounters and Metamorphic Bodies focuses on stories concerned with epistemological borders and borderlands of existence and identity Taken together the chapters in this volume demonstrate the varied and complex ways in which British short stories in the twenty-first century engage with the concept of the border

Literary Encounters of Fundamentalism Klaus Stierstorfer, Annette Kern-Stähler, 2008

The Postcolonial Body in Queer Space and Time Rebecca Fine Romanow, 2006 The Postcolonial Body in Queer Space and Time examines the ways in which the notion of the postcolonial correlates to Judith Halberstam's idea of queer space and time the non-normative path of Western lifestyles and hegemonies Emphasizing authors from Africa and Southeast Asia in the diaspora in London from the mid-1960s through 1990 the reading of both postcolonial lands and subjects as queer counterproductive space reveals a depiction of bodies in these texts as located in and performing queer space and time redefining and relocating the
