Rauser, 2006 A handy guide to the major figures and issues in Christian philosophy from Augustine to the present This volume covers a broad historical sweep and takes into account those non Christian philosophers that have had a great impact on the Christian tradition However it concentrates on the issues that perplex Christian philosophers as they seek to think through their faith in a philosophical way and their philosophical beliefs in the light of their faith Examples of the topics discussed are the question of whether and how God knows the future whether we actually know that God exists and what Athens has to do with Jerusalem The leaders of the recent revival of Christian analytic philosophy especially Alvin Plantinga Nicholas Wolterstorff William Alston and Robert Adams are also included This book will be of interest to those studying Christian philosophy and to Christians seeking to think philosophically about their faith     A Molinist-Anabaptist Systematic Theology Kirk R. MacGregor, 2007-08-31 As the first systematic theology of its kind the ecumenical construction synthesizes the strengths of what are typically considered two disparate branches of Christianity namely Roman Catholicism and Anabaptism Focusing on the celebrated Jesuit neo Scholastic theologian Luis de Molina 1535 1600 and the evangelical peace communities from the early modern period onward this system integrates the best in Catholic philosophical theology with the best historical implementations of the Free Church ecclesiological tradition In doing so this progressive doctrinal edifice furnishes provocative new answers to perennial quandaries Included in this discussion are the polarity between sovereign predestination and libertarian freedom the interaction between omniscience and God s changing his mind and the existence of gratuitous evil This system breaks ground in the realm of practical theology by proposing an antithetical relationship between church discipline and the sacraments While avoiding the either or debate between egalitarianism and complementarianism this theology demonstrates exegetically that women should not be restricted from holding any leadership position within the church Drawing together these dialectical and Scriptural threads this book advocates a social ethic that exhorts Christians to display extreme reluctance on matters of war and to exercise discernment toward political agendas by measuring them against the Sermon on the Mount By His Word John Filippi, Bruce A. Malone, 2004-11
