Testimony After Catastrophe Stevan Weine, 2006-08-14 Survivors of political violence give testimonies in families and communities trials and truth commissions religious institutions psychotherapies newspapers documentaries artworks and even in solitude Through spoken written and visual images survivors' testimonies tell stories that may change history politics and life itself In this book Stevan Weine a psychiatrist and scholar in the field of mental health and human rights focuses on the testimony of survivors for the hope it might hold hope expressed by survivors again and again that no matter what horrors or humiliations they have endured some good might come of their stories It is through the thinking of Mikhail Bakhtin and his approach to narrative that Weine seeks to read the testimony of survivors of political violence from four different twentieth century historical nightmares and to read them as the stories they are meant to be fully conveying their legitimacy resourcefulness power and finally hope A deeply involving compassionate occasionally confrontational blend of practical hands on experience and dialogic theory emerging from the author's decade long work in Europe and Chicago with survivors of the Balkan wars this book is committed to the proposition that efforts to use testimony to address the consequences of political violence can be strengthened though by no means guaranteed if they are based on a fuller acknowledgment of the personal and ethical elements embodied in the narrative essence of testimony These elements are what Testimony after Catastrophe seeks to reveal
