Ballad for harp and strings (1973/81) Einojuhani Rautavaara, 1995 Ballad for Harp and Strings (1973/81) Einojuhani Rautavaara, 1995 Angel Harp Michael Phillips, 2011-01-26 Widowed at 34 amateur harpist Marie Angel Buchan realizes at 40 that her life and dreams are slowly slipping away A summer in Scotland turns out to offer far more than she ever imagined Not only does the music of her harp capture the fancy of the small coastal village she visits she is unexpectedly drawn into a love triangle involving the local curate and the local duke The boyhood friends have been estranged as adults because of their mutual love of another woman now dead some years before History seems destined to repeat itself with Marie in the thick of it Her involvement in the lives of the two men as well as in the community leads to a range of exciting relationships and lands Marie in the center of the mystery of a long unsolved local murder Eventually she must make her decision with whom will she cast the lot of her future Millay at 100 Diane P. Freedman, 1995 In this newest addition to Sandra M Gilbert's Ad Feminam Women and Literature series Diane P Freedman brings together twelve essays by critics of poetry and women's writing for a critical reappraisal of the prolific work of Edna St Vincent Millay Though finding its occasion in the life of Millay the centennial of the writer's birth this volume refocuses attention on Millay's art by asking questions central to our present concerns What in the varied body of Millay's work speaks to us most forcefully today Which critical perspectives most illuminate her texts How might those approaches be challenged extended or reoriented In seeking the answers to such questions the volume's contributors illuminate the means by which Millay's early success has been slighted and misunderstood and examine issues of personality personae critical stature and formal experimentation in Millay's various genres lyric poetry the sonnet verse drama fiction and the personal letter In 1920 following the publication of A Few Figs from Thistles Millay was the It girl of American poetry But by the late 1930s her popularity waned as her critical reputation declined under the reign of high modernism and its critics In fact Millay like others of her generation had rejected modernist elitism in favor of public engagement using her powerful public voice to plead for an end to the Sacco Vanzetti trials as well as for U S entry into World War II Condemned for both her politicizing and her political poetry she was the first to admit that she and her poetry suffered in the service of public causes Grouped into four parts these essays focus on Millay's relation to modernism her revisionary perspectives on love her treatment of time and of the female body and her use of masquerade and impersonation in life and in art Throughout the essayists pose such questions as Where is Millay's place in the literary histories of modern writing and in our hearts How are we to value interpret and characterize the various forms and genres in which she wrote What is the cultural work Millay achieves and reflects How does she help us redefine modernism What do Millay's great gifts enable us to see about genre the social construction of gender the definition of modernism and the role of the poet Millay's considerable productivity the range and virtues of her forms and her experimentation clearly argue for a wide ranging reappraisal of her work Bibliographic
