BALTIMORE'S HALCYON DAYS

Brooke Gunning and Molly O'Donovan

Baltimore's Halcyon Days

Justin Winsor

Baltimores Halcyon Days:

Baltimore's Halcyon Days Brooke Gunning, Molly O'Donovan, 2000 Baltimore's Halcyon Days chronicles Baltimore's social elite their homes and their lifestyle from the dawn of the Republic to the demise of the fingerbowl Long and widely renowned as an enclave of good taste and culture Baltimore has from its inception offered a good life to those who could afford it From hunt cups to hatpins and terrapins to tophats Baltimoreans were connoisseurs of the best When life was their oyster they knew the best way to have it served

Towson and the Villages of Ruxton and Lutherville Molly O'Donovan, Brooke Gunning, 1999 Before there were beltways and byways there were fields and farms Towson was situated on an increasingly busy route used by farmers travelers and merchants heading to the port of Baltimore The community's idyllic setting began to change when in 1854 the local populace voted Towson the new seat of Baltimore County The neighboring communities of Ruxton and Lutherville once consisted mainly of farmland but also became popular summer retreats Both areas have since made the shift from vacation spot to suburb but many of the charming historic houses found there capture the spirit of an earlier time and have been preserved for posterity With images culled from such sources as the Baltimore County Historical Society the Baltimore County Public Library the archives of Towson University and Goucher College as well as the cherished albums of local residents this pictorial retrospective documents the people and places events and organizations that have helped to shape these three vital communities

Jewish Baltimore Gilbert Sandler, 2000-09-24 From Nates and Leon's deli to Hutzler's department store a columnist for Baltimore's Jewish Times and the Baltimore Sun tells of neighborhoods and landmarks that have been important to the city's Jewish population from 1850 to today More than 100 nostalgic photos help bring the memories to life

Football in Baltimore Ted Patterson, Dean Smith, 2013-11-06 Baltimore's remarkable football traditions from the Colts to the Ravens expressed in sports memorabilia The second edition of Ted Patterson's illustrated history of football in Baltimore continues the story of the Ravens success from their first Super Bowl victory in 2001 to the emotional parade through downtown Baltimore after winning Super Bowl XLVII Patterson is joined by Baltimore poet and sports aficionado Dean Smith whose new chapters capture the energy of Purple Fridays the larger than life personalities of Ray Lewis Hall of Famer Jonathan Ogden Jamal Lewis Matt Stover Ed Reed and Joe Flacco and the city's embrace of the Ravens as a reflection of Baltimore itself Football in Baltimore is a tour of one of the world's premier collections of Baltimore sports memorabilia highlighting memorable games and players and exploring a pop culture that surrounded and has survived them Patterson moved to Baltimore in what turned out to be the final decade of the Baltimore Colts and has amassed a remarkable collection of items that both collectors and sports fans will enjoy Patterson introduces us to the teams and early stars of Johns Hopkins and Morgan State Army Navy games in old Municipal Stadium high school rivalries like City Poly Loyola Calvert Hall Gilman McDonogh and the great years of Patterson High the original Colts colors silver and green and at considerable length

the legendary Baltimore Colts of Johnny Unitas Lenny Moore Raymond Berry Alan the Horse Ameche Artie Donovan Bert Jones and Lydell Mitchell He includes the next chapters in this eventful story the fight to bring pro football back to the city the dawn of the Ravens era and the building of a new football stadium in downtown Baltimore The Baltimore Underwriter, 1892

On Middle Ground Eric L. Goldstein, Deborah R. Weiner, 2018-03-28 A model of Jewish community history that will enlighten anyone interested in Baltimore and its past Winner of the Southern Jewish Historical Society Book Prize by the Southern Jewish Historical Society Finalist of the American Jewish Studies Book Award by the Jewish Book Council National Jewish Book Awards In 1938 Gustav Brunn and his family fled Nazi Germany and settled in Baltimore Brunn found a job at McCormick's Spice Company but was fired after three days when according to family legend the manager discovered he was Jewish He started his own successful business using a spice mill he brought over from Germany and developed a blend especially for the seafood purveyors across the street Before long his Old Bay spice blend would grace kitchen cabinets in virtually every home in Maryland The Brunns sold the business in 1986 Four years later Old Bay was again sold to McCormick In On Middle Ground the first truly comprehensive history of Baltimore's Jewish community Eric L. Goldstein and Deborah R. Weiner describe not only the formal institutions of Jewish life but also the everyday experiences of families like the Brunns and of a diverse Jewish population that included immigrants and natives factory workers and department store owners traditionalists and reformers The story of Baltimore Jews full of absorbing characters and marked by dramas of immigration acculturation and assimilation is the story of American Jews in microcosm But its contours also reflect the city's unique culture Goldstein and Weiner argue that Baltimore's distinctive setting as both a border city and an immigrant port offered opportunities for advancement that made it a magnet for successive waves of Jewish settlers The authors detail how the city began to attract enterprising merchants during the American Revolution when it thrived as one of the few ports remaining free of British blockade They trace Baltimore's meteoric rise as a commercial center which drew Jewish newcomers who helped the upstart town surpass Philadelphia as the second largest American city They explore the important role of Jewish entrepreneurs as Baltimore became a commercial gateway to the South and later developed a thriving industrial scene Readers learn how in the twentieth century the growth of suburbia and the redevelopment of downtown offered scope to civic leaders business owners and real estate developers From symphony benefactor Joseph Meyerhoff to Governor Marvin Mandel and trailblazing state senator Rosalie Abrams Jews joined the ranks of Baltimore's most influential cultural philanthropic and political leaders while working on the grassroots level to reshape a metro area confronted with the challenges of modern urban life Accessibly written and enriched by more than 130 illustrations On Middle Ground reveals that local Jewish life was profoundly shaped by Baltimore's middleness its hybrid identity as a meeting point between North and South a major industrial center with a legacy of slavery and a large city with a small town feel
