On The Trail Of Negro Folk-Songs Dorothy Scarborough,2022-06-02 How often have I overheard alluring snatches of song only to be baffled by denial when I asked for more Kindly black faces smile indulgently as at the vagaries of an imaginative child when I persist in pleading for the rest Nawm honey I wa and n and t singing nothing nothing a tall How often have I been tricked into enthusiasm over the promise of folk songs only to hear age worn phonograph records but perhaps so changed and worked upon by usage that they could possibly claim to be folk songs after all or Broadway echoes or conventional songs by white authors Yet cajolements might be in vain even though all the time I knew by the uncanny instinct of folk lorists that there were folk songs there And even when you get a song started when you are listening with your heart in your ear and the greed of the folk lorist in your eye you may lose out If you seem too much interested the song retreats draws in like a turtle and s head and no amount of coaxing will make it venture back And there is something positively fatal about a pencil Songs seem to be afraid of lead poisoning Or perhaps the pencil is secretly attached by a cord a vocal cord to the singer and s tongue It must be so for otherwise why has it so often happened that when I distrustful of my tricky memory to hold a precious song have sneaked a pencil out to take notes the tongue has suddenly jerked back and refused to wag again Yet that is not always the case for sometimes the knowledge that his song is being written down inspires a bard with more respect for it and he gives it freely Fiction, Folklore, Fantasy & Poetry for Children, 1876-1985: Titles, awards ,1986 The Annual Obituary ,1992 Neighborhoods: Teacher's resource book (includes 7 posters in front pocket) ,1986 Pennsylvania Library and Museum Notes ,1927 The Publishers Weekly ,1972 American Women Writers Taryn Benbow-Pfalzgraf,2000 Raising the Roof Jan Irving,Robin Currie,1991 A source book of program suggestions and activities for preschool and primary age children all on the theme of houses Childhood Education ,1972 Includes music The Music Lover's Handbook ...
