Biblical Holy Places Rivka Gonen, 2000 Provides Bible scholars seekers who journey far and wide or armchair travelers with a complete and authoritative guide to places named in the Old and New Testaments places that stood in silent witness to the most significant events as well as to the most important and intriguing personalities of Biblical times Each of the two hundred entries contains an appropriate quotation from the Bible an explanatory note and a comprehensive description of the site

Christians and the Holy Places Joan E. Taylor, 1993 The origins of Christian holy places in Palestine and the beginnings of Christian pilgrimage to these sites have seemed obscure From a detailed examination of the literature and archaeology pertaining to specific sites and the region in general the present author finds no evidence that Christians of any kind venerated holy places before the fourth century It appears that scholarly Christians had visited certain Biblical sites out of historical and exegetical concerns but that these sites were not considered holy or the visitors as pilgrims Instead the origins of Christian pilgrimage and holy places rest with the emperor Constantine who established four basilicas in Palestine c 325 30 and provided two imperial matrons Helena and Eutropia as examples of a new kind of pious pilgrim Pilgrimage to intrinsically sacred shrines had been a pagan practice which was grafted on to Christianity Many Jewish Samaritan and pagan sites were thereafter appropriated by the church and turned into Christian holy places This process helped to destroy the widespread paganism of Palestine and mark the country as a holy land Very few sites are genuine the most important being the cave not Garden of Gethsemane in which Jesus was probably arrested

Holy City, Holy Places? Peter W. L. Walker, 1990 The Oxford Early Christian Studies series will include scholarly volumes on the thought and history of the early Christian centuries Covering a wide range of Greek Latin and Oriental sources the books will be of interest to theologians ancient historians and specialists in the classical and Jewish worlds Series Editors Rowan Williams Lady Margaret Professor of Divinity at University of Oxford and Henry Chadwick Master of Peterhouse in the University of Cambridge The first book in The Oxford Early Christian Studies series this study examines how Christians whose faith is rooted historically in the Holy Land define the precise significance of such a holy land in the present Walker focuses on 325 A D when Constantine the first Christian emperor established his capital at Byzantium allowing the Christians to uncover the Gospel sites and develop a theoretical approach to the Holy Land He systematically compares for the first time the attitudes of two ancient writers Eusebius of Caesarea and Cyril of Jerusalem whose works discuss these events revealing a new and important appreciation of Eusebius as one who unlike Cyril did not believe that the city in the Judean hills was truly the city of God

The Architecture of the Christian Holy Land Kathryn Blair Moore, 2017-02-27 In the absence of the bodies of Christ and Mary architecture took on a special representational role during the Christian Middle Ages marking out sites associated with the bodily presence of the dominant figures of the religion Throughout this period buildings were reinterpreted in relation to the mediating role of textual and pictorial representations that shaped the pilgrimage experience across expansive geographies

In this study Kathryn Blair Moore challenges fundamental ideas within architectural history regarding the origins and significance of European recreations of buildings in Jerusalem Bethlehem and Nazareth From these conceptual foundations she traces and re interprets the significance of the architecture of the Holy Land within changing religious and political contexts from the First Crusade and the emergence of the Franciscan Custody of the Holy Land to the anti Islamic crusade movements of the Renaissance as well as the Reformation
