Biblical Preaching For Today's World:

Biblical Preaching for Today's World Lloyd Perry, 1990-03-08 Biblical preaching has not outgrown its usefulness. The methods may vary but the message remains the same. God's challenge and call to the preacher still come through loud and clear. Preach the Word. Lloyd M. Perry's Biblical Preaching for Today's World has been helping pastors and speakers preach the Word since 1973. Although the principles Perry originally established are timeless, the needs and concerns of audiences are always changing. To help pastors preach more effectively to today's congregations, Perry has updated his original manuscript. He offers pastors help in understanding and adjusting to the effects television has had on an audience's listening skills. Historical references throughout each chapter will also help preachers learn from yesterday's teachers and styles. Biblical Preaching for Today's World continues to offer sound, time-tested principles for preaching regardless of the preacher's style. Filled with helpful suggestions, annotated outlines, and solid documentation, it is invaluable reading for all who aspire to preach the Word.

Preaching to a Post-Everything World Zack Eswine, 2008-04-01 Zack Eswine starts this unique pastoral resource with a captivating question: Could I now reach who I once was? Challenging the idea that today's preachers must do away with biblical or expository preaching if they are to reach non-Christian people, Eswine offers a way of preaching that embraces biblical exposition in missional terms. Recognizing all of the different cultural situations in which the gospel must be preached, he gives preachers practical advice on preaching in a global context while remaining faithful to the Bible. Pastors, seminarians, and church and ministry leaders who speak in various contexts will welcome this fresh, thoughtful examination of bringing the Word to today's multi-everything, post-everything world.

Biblical Preaching for Today's World Lloyd Merle Perry, 1990 Expository Preaching in a World of Spiritual Nominalism R. T. Johnson, 2021-10-06 The spiritual decay of nominalism threatens the established church worldwide.

While spiritual lethargy is often addressed from the perspective of theology and discipleship little attention has been given to the role of homiletics in revitalizing a congregation's spiritual health. In this study Dr Johnson Raih explores the impact of preaching on members of Baptist churches in Imphal Manipur India from 2000 to 2015. He utilizes interviews and questionnaires from pastors, church leaders and lay members to assess the presence of nominalism within church congregations along with the effects of various preaching methods on increasing or decreasing spiritual vitality. Combining this qualitative research with scriptural and theological insight Raih suggests that expository preaching has the power to confront and even eradicate nominalism within the church. He draws on biblical examples along with the methodology of John Stott and Timothy Keller to offer ten practical recommendations for countering nominalism homiletically whether in Imphal India or around the world.

Between Two Worlds John Stott, 2017-07-20 Preaching is indispensable to Christianity. World renowned preacher John Stott opens this book with those five bold words. He maintains further that nothing is better calculated to restore health and vitality to the church than a recovery of true biblical contemporary preaching. Stott was aiming to foster such a recovery when he wrote Between Two Worlds which has become a modern evangelical classic. The genius of this book is the way it synthesizes and distills Stott's wealth of wisdom on preaching focusing not so much on technical matters but more on theological foundations and on necessary personal characteristics of the preacher: sincerity, earnestness, courage and humility. Preachers old and new will continue to find much to chew on in these pages.

Biblical Preaching on the Death of Jesus David J. Lull, William A. Beardslee, 2007-02-01 How can one preach effectively on the death of Jesus to a world jaded by stories of suffering and violence? This exegetical book written collectively by six authorities on Scripture sheds new light on the tremendous power of preaching to challenge and enlarge the world of the listeners. By probing the accounts of Jesus' death in the Gospel of Mark and in Paul's letters, Biblical Preaching on the Death of Jesus uncovers a vision of divine power and justice that calls us to become partners in God's struggle to overcome suffering and injustice in the world. In the cross the authors demonstrate we as Christians are given a symbol of both weakness and defeat and of power and victory. This symbol is a magnificent reminder of the redemption and transformation of lives and situations through Christ's identification with suffering. With unusual success the six authors have written the entire book as a group undertaking. The result is a testimony to the interrelatedness that is central to the vision of process theology. Biblical Preaching on the Death of Jesus will be of immense help to preachers and to students and scholars of New Testament interpretation and systematic theology.

Variety in Biblical Preaching Harold Freeman, 1987 He is Not Silent R. Albert Mohler, Jr., 2008-09-01 Contemporary preaching suffers from a loss of confidence in the power of the Word from an infatuation with technology from an embarrassment before the biblical text from an evacuation of biblical content from a focus on felt needs from an absence of gospel. Preaching the practice of publicly expositing the Bible has fallen on hard times. How did this happen? After all as John A. Broadus famously remarked Preaching is characteristic of Christianity. In this powerful book He Is Not Silent: Preaching in a Postmodern World R. Albert Mohler Jr shows us how. In a style both commanding and encouraging, Mohler lays the groundwork for preaching, fans the flame on the glory of preaching, and calls out with an urgent need for preaching. This message is desperately needed yet not often heard. Whether you're concerned or enthused by the state of the church today, join Mohler as he examines preaching and why the church can't survive without it.

A Theology of Preaching and Dialectic Aaron P. Edwards, 2018-07-12 How does the preacher know what God might say now based upon the many things God said then? Preachers and theologians throughout Christian history have grappled with Scripture's diverse emphases alongside the urgent task of declaring the authoritative Word of God in the contemporary pulpit. Aaron Edwards offers a new way of engaging with this problem by exploring the theological relationship between biblical dialectics and heraldic proclamation. Edwards highlights the theological necessity of dialectical variety without forfeiting assertiveness in the prophetic moment of preaching. A vast array of key voices from the theological tradition are drawn upon, including Augustine, Aquinas, Eckhart, Luther, Calvin, Hegel, Kierkegaard, Chesterton, Barth, Bultmann, Tillich, Ebeling, and others, to navigate the connection between Scriptural unity, clarity, and paradoxical plurivocality, leading to a nuanced account of dialectic. Applying this to the homiletically neglected concept of heraldic confidence in preaching, Edwards examines the theological possibility of preaching in light of dialectical complexity via its prophetic dimension. He shows how the uniquely revelatory relationship of Word and Spirit enables Scriptural illumination, prophetic discernment, and dialectical decisiveness in the momentary encounter which undergirds all Christian proclamation. Keith Willhite, Scott M. Gibson, 2003-02-01 Since 1980 Haddon Robinson has influenced generations of students and preachers through his widely used classic text Biblical Preaching, in which he shows preachers how to communicate the Bible's big ideas with precision. But does Robinson's big idea approach to expository preaching still work in today's diverse cultures and fast-paced world? The Big Idea of Biblical Preaching, now in paperback, presents a strong defense of the ongoing relevance of this approach to expository preaching. An experienced and skilled group of contributors to this volume includes Paul Borden, Scott M. Gibson, Duane Litfin, Terry Mattingly, John Reed, Bruce L. Shelley, Donald R. Sunukjian, Joseph M. Stowell III, Bruce K. Waltke, Scott Wenig, and Keith Willhite. This volume is written not only for the current generation of students but also for today's preachers who will find in the pages of this book a powerful approach to expository preaching. Biblical Preaching for Today's World

Lloyd M. Perry, 1990 The Power of Preaching Gary Wilkerson, Joshu West, Voddie T. Baucham, Jr., Carter Conlon, Tim Dilella, R. T. Kendall, Claude Houde, John Bailey, 2025-02-04 In our churches today we have allowed ourselves to hold to a low view of God instead of seeing Him as Who He really is. And in today's world of seeking the most likes and followers, many Christian pastors and leaders are finding themselves preaching what people want to hear instead of what God wants to say. In The Power of Preaching, eight experienced men of God who have stayed true to the preaching of God's Word offer guidance on how to avoid appealing to the masses and instead encourage the reader to let God
