This paper is intended to serve as a useful resource for others.

Introduction

Prof. P.P. Joglekar is a well-known name in archaeozoology. He has made important contributions to his field through the publication of multiple articles in prestigious academic journals. He has, however, made contributions to the other areas of archaeology as well. A large corpus of publications in various branches of archaeology and related themes are credited to him. His research publications cover a vast time span in archaeological contexts, from the Palaeolithic to modern historical times, and have been well-received by the scholarly community. His works have been cited by many other researchers, demonstrating the impact and influence of his research.

Section I: Summary of Research Articles

In this section, we summarise his academic achievements as evidenced by his research articles. We have grouped his publications by theme so that readers may easily measure the huge knowledge that has been accumulated through them. We apologise if we missed any of his research articles from his extensive list of publications.
