Big Brokers:

Brokers, Bagmen, and Moles David Greising, Laurie Morse, 1991-07-01 Describes the two year government undercover operation investigating corruption and illegal practices in the two Chicago commodity exchanges and culminating in the indictments of 46 industry professionals Describes how these very complicated markets function and how their old boy club style first created the problems and later shielded many of its members from investigation and prosecution A true inside account it explores rampant fraud and abuse in the futures markets

Buy and Hold Is Dead Thomas H. Kee, 2009-10-06 An eye opening look at how investors can take control of their financial life Buy and Hold Is Dead provides actionable strategies and disciplines which can be used to earn positive results in any market environment Money managers rarely outperform the stock market over time and this has become a sticking point for many people as our uneven economic landscape continues to unfold This timely guide is designed around a step by step educational process in which traders and investors learn how they can protect their wealth and make money regardless of market direction The goal of Buy and Hold Is Dead is twofold to dispel old school investment techniques and to show you how to maximize your returns without sacrificing time or lifestyle and without the use of a money manager Identifies the duration of the current economic down cycle and warns of a Greater Depression Encourages readers to use proactive trading strategies that can protect their wealth and make them money in any market environment Discusses why investors cannot afford to rely on the selfish guidelines imposed by big brokers and money managers Losing less is never a winning strategy and this book skillfully addresses why it should not be considered a positive result despite relative market performance

The Global in the Local Xin Zhang, 2023-04-04 The story of globalization in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries as experienced by ordinary people in the Chinese river town of Zhenjiang Fear swept Zhenjiang as British soldiers gathered outside the city walls in the summer of 1842 Already suspicious of foreigners locals had also heard of the suffering the British inflicted two months earlier in Zhapu A wave of suicides and mercy killings ensued rather than leave their families to the invaders hundreds of women killed themselves and their children or died at the hands of male family members British observers decried an Asian culture of ritual suicide In reality the event was sui generis a tragic result of colliding local and global forces in nineteenth century China Xin Zhang s groundbreaking history examines the intense negotiations between local societies and global changes that created modern China In the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries world historic political economic and technological developments transformed the textures of everyday life in places like Zhenjiang a midsize river town in China s prosperous Lower Yangzi region Drawing on rare primary sources including handwritten diaries and other personal writings Zhang offers a ground level view of globalization in the city We see civilians coping with the traumatic international encounters of the Opium War Zhenjiang brokers bankrolling Shanghai s ascendance as a cosmopolitan commercial hub and merchants shipping goods to market for the first time on steamships Far from passive recipients the Chinese leveraged resisted and made change for themselves Indeed The Global in the Local argues that globalization is inevitably refracted through local particularities "Nauticus" ,1921 Editor & Publisher ,1919 Special features such as syndicate directories annual newspaper lineage tabulations etc appear as separately paged sections of regular issues Washington Municipalities League of Washington Municipalities,1916 The World's Work ,1908 A history of our time Interests and Behaviours of Real Estate Market Actors in Commercial Property Valuation Alina Nichiforeanu,2020-07-26 This book is a theory led conceptual account of the Principal Agent problem and related concepts of Behavioural Real Estate economics a decade after the real estate crisis of 2008 Data from 52 qualitative interviews undertaken with appraisers real estate brokers and property owners is used to argue that the reality is more nuanced and influenced by the interests of the different real estate market actors The book provides a sketch of the relationship dynamics between real estate investors and service providers in the markets of Austria and Central and Eastern Europe While the investors manage real estate portfolios and have to deal with particular legal systems regulations and norms they often appoint service providers who have a comprehensive understanding of the local context This work aims to highlight that this relationship between the real estate market actors creates an information asymmetry that may constitute the basis of conflicts of interest as well as Principal Agent problems Furthermore the work underlines that the services provided by appraisers and real estate brokers to investors may strongly influence the profit the investor can generate from a transaction It could be therefore inferred that the investor inclines towards a certain type of result from a service provider over the others The present research has revealed that the investors are guided by certain interests and undertake to steer the service providers in a favoured direction This book is essential reading for anyone interested in the nuances of Behavioural Economics and real estate National Underwriter ,1928 The Standard ,1930 The Adjuster ,1919 The Eastern Underwriter ,1929 Agricultural Survey ,1928 The Insurance Press ,1925 Insurance Monitor ,1913 Insurance Monitor and Commercial Register ,1913 American Agency Bulletin ,1930 Sketch ,1908 The Sketch ,1902
