

Communicating Effectively with Parents

Take time to consider which methods of communication work best for you and your parents. Understanding how parents like to receive information will help ensure communication is as effective as possible.

You could communicate through

Informal face-to-face communication

Email, online or text communication

Parents' evenings

Home visits

When needed and with care

One-to-one or working parties

Effective communication is supported by

- Clear verbal communication using staff to ensure full progress to avoid parent queries
- Messages from parents individually and clearly communicated to staff, such as problems
- Being open-minded and judgemental and building trust
