JESUS' WAY

Revised Edition

Charles H. Kraft

Communicating Jesus Way

David E. Bjork

Communicating Jesus Way:

Communicating Jesus' Way Charles H. Kraft, 2013-06-19 This greatly expanded edition of Kraft's book Communicating the Gospel God's Way guides us in our attempt to understand how God seeks to communicate the gospel to unbelievers. Kraft shows that God desires His people to deliver His message through human life, not merely formulaic explanations or printed words.

Cracking the Communication Code Workbook Dr. Emerson Eggerichs, 2008-04-01 An in-depth study of the vital principles from the best-selling Cracking the Communication Code now in workbook form. Communication between couples has been dissected in thousands of books and articles, so why does it remain the number one marriage problem? Because, says Dr. Emerson Eggerichs, most spouses don't know that they speak two different languages. They are sending each other messages in code, but they won't crack that code until they see that she listens to hear the language of love and he listens to hear the language of respect. Dr. Eggerichs' best-selling book Love and Respect launched a revolution in how couples relate to each other. Now with the Cracking the Communication Code companion workbook, the message of this hardcover trade book can be studied and applied whether for a group or for individual couples. The result will be better communication, mutual understanding, and a successful godly marriage.

Communicating the Gospel God's Way Charles H. Kraft, 1980 Discusses the impact of communicating effectively.

Missiology John Mark Terry, 2015-09-01 Thoroughly updated and revised with half of the chapters new to the second edition. Missiology equips the reader with a vast graduate-level resource on contemporary missions.

Four Careers Charles H. Kraft, 2019-10-23 While in high school, Chuck felt God's call to be a field missionary in Africa, expecting to spend his life there. But God only allowed him three years in the bush. He had other things in mind for him. These years working cross-culturally laid a solid foundation for his future accomplishments. Through a series of unplanned events, God made him a teacher of missionaries and a missiologist, teaching and writing to improve missionary principles and practices. In this book, Kraft reflects on how he was shaped as a missiologist and why. How he felt the need for writing his many books and articles. Culture positive is the term he has coined for his approach. It's an approach that honors a people's way of life and helps them to express their faith in Christ within that way of life without converting to another culture. He taught that God loves and accepts them as they are, plus faith, and seeks to work with them to develop their own Christianity based on their own understanding of Scripture. Chuck sees a missionary as a coach, not as a director. This approach has shown its effectiveness both among the people Chuck worked with in the Kamwe of northern Nigeria and in the field ministries of his students.

Every Believer a Disciple! David E. Bjork, 2015-06-14 The growth of Christianity in recent decades has been remarkable, but has it been growth with depth? Are our communities of faith, our churches, creating and nurturing deeply committed followers of Jesus? This book was born out of the realization that churches throughout the world, despite their numerous evangelization and spiritual development activities, are struggling to produce true disciples of Jesus. How can we explain why so many of us in our churches are so unlike Jesus in the way we think and act? What can we change in our understanding and practices to facilitate life transformation and spiritual multiplication And as Christians what are we called to do In answering these questions the author proposes an alternative ecclesial and missional paradigm that will enable us to better equip and mobilize believers in the mission that Christ gave to his disciples and gives to us all to make disciples Proceedings International Conference On Theology, Religion, Culture, And Humanities ,2023-06-13 This proceeding is an effort from various academics and practitioners in the midst of modern society to find the meaning and re imagine Theology Religion Culture and Humanities Studies for Public Life From discussions on how religion can reshape our world to become a better world to re imagining the foundation of human life that believes in God in the midst of local culture and an increasingly advanced and modern world even looking back at the history of women evangelization and places of worship as a means for humans to find God in the world In the end all of these writings are a form of academic reflection of the authors who seek to find God in the midst of today s world Enhancing Faith Proclamation in Nigeria Benjamin Isola Akano,2026-02-28 Proclaiming the gospel is the central feature of Christian mission thus making communication a critical challenge as missionaries attempt to share the message by learning language and culture However very few consider the influence of identity on communication In this interdisciplinary work Dr Benjamin Isola Akano engages with Michael Hecht s communication theory of identity which argues that it is a multi layered phenomenon with interlocking and shifting frames that leads to an identity gap between the speaker and audience Therefore the employment of Hecht s theory aids in gospel proclamation for people s holistic transformation into those with a kingdom identity Practical and contextual Dr Akano provides a historical overview of missional practice in Nigeria analyzes missiological concepts of faith proclamation as a communicative experience and applies Hecht s theory to three selected indigenous missions to accurately convey the current state of missional faith proclamation in Nigeria He argues that the establishment of identity language and cultural learning and contextual biblical translation are all necessary elements for successful intercultural proclamation Written in accessible language this book provides missionaries pastors and theologians with a framework for powerful and transformative communication practices Communicating Good News David W. Shaw,Charles E. Van Engen,2003-08-04 Communicating God s Word in a Complex World reaches out to the growing number of missionaries pastors Bible translators and teachers mission and theological educators and students dealing with communicating the gospel This is increasingly difficult in today s pluralist and global contexts What was God s message and how has spreading that message changed through the generations The answer to that question requires a hermeneutical process that seeks to understand the biblical text and the context in which it was originally presented R Daniel Shaw and Charles Van Engen say that contemporary proclaimers of God s word can model their approach after that of the writers of scripture who reinterpreted and restated their received texts for their audiences Thus Gospel communication is impacted by the way humans know God This in turn is informed by contexts Communicating God s Word in a Complex World draws lessons from the biblical authors themselves as a guide for how best to present God s message
