Communicating As Christians:

Mirror of the Heart Charles R. Gerber, 2001 It is said that a journey of a thousand miles begins with the first step An enduring relationship begins with the first step of effective communication Because of the power of verbal communication Charles Gerber urges Christians to carefully monitor their speech He reminds us that communication can be used for either good or evil purposes Words will ultimately reveal the heart of the speaker Knowing the tremendous impact spoken words can have on any relationship Gerber encourages speech that embodies New Testament teachings Examples from Scripture of both positive and negative effects of speech clarify the picture of what godly speech should or should not be Jesus Christ himself is examined as the greatest communicator of the Bible Christ's teachings and conversations provide a perfect model for all Christians Engaging anecdotes present the effects of spoken words in a variety of settings Gerber offers concise realistic suggestions for improving communication skills and quality in any conversation Book jacket

Communicate God's Way Rian Seipler, 2019-05-10 Words are powerful very powerful The words we use can uplift encourage comfort teach and guide the people around us and often will have long lasting effects on your family friends and peers How you use your words define you as a person a leader as a friend coworker etc We speak about sixteen thousand words a day almost six million words a year enough to recite the Bible over seven times a year How do we plan on using these sixteen thousand words every day God tells us how to use these words to maximize our communication skills The truth is there are over seven billion people in the world and not one thinks that same way you do Therefore to communicate effectively we must know the thoughts attitudes emotions and spiritual levels of the people with whom we interact We do this through caring and listening with a godly attitude This book describes how we as Christians and quite frankly non Christians can effectively communicate with virtually everyone they speak to God has much to say about the words we use and how to use them and we discuss these throughout the book The Word says in James 1 26 If anyone considers himself religious and yet does not keep a tight rein on his tongue deceives himself and his religion is worthless Our religion is not worthless through the Holy Spirit it is our responsibility to use our words wisely This book will help you build better relationships be more a more effective communicator and to further the Gospel of Christ by living and talking the way God wants you to Use those sixteen thousand words you speak every day to help guide encourage teach comfort edify spread the Gospel and improve the life of those around you This book will help you do just that

Communicating God's Word in a Complex World Daniel R. Shaw, Charles E. Van Engen, 2003-08-04 Communicating God's Word in a Complex World reaches out to the growing number of missionaries pastors Bible translators and teachers mission and theological educators and students dealing with communicating the gospel This is increasingly difficult in today's pluralist and global contexts What was God's message and how has spreading that message changed through the generations The answer to that question requires a hermeneutical process that seeks to understand the biblical text and the context in which it was originally presented R Daniel Shaw and Charles Van Engen say that contemporary proclaimers of God's word can model their approach after that of the writers of scripture who reinterpreted and restated their received texts for their audiences Thus Gospel communication is impacted by the way humans know God This in turn is informed by contexts Communicating God's Word in a Complex World draws lessons from the biblical authors themselves as a guide for how best to present God's message
