Community And Commitment:

Commitment and Community Rosabeth Moss Kanter,1972 Rosabeth Kanter offers a unique analysis of the nature and process of enduring commitment basing her theory of commitment mechanisms on exhaustive research of nineteenth century utopias sharpened by first hand knowledge of a variety of contemporary groups Performing Community Connie Kubo Della-Piana,1995 Commitment to Community Commitment to Community Task Force,2009 Twenty Five Years of Community Commitment Betty Hargreaves,1997* Our Commitment is to Our Communities David Gilbert,Bob Feldman,2014 David Gilbert recently wrote that the War on Crime which began in the early 1970s was in fact a conscious government counterinsurgency strategy to decimate and disrupt Black and other people of color communities across the United States In this pamphlet interviewed by Bob Feldman David uses this observation as his starting point to discuss the ongoing catastrophe that is mass incarceration connecting it to the continued imprisonment of political prisoners and the challenges that face our movements today Community and Commitment John Driver,1976 Human-Computer Interaction Masaaki Kurosu,Ayako Hashizume,2025-07-01 This seven volume set constitutes the refereed proceedings of the Human Computer Interaction thematic area of the 27th International Conference on Human Computer Interaction HCII 2025 held in Gothenburg Sweden during June 22 27 2025 The HCI Thematic Area constitutes a forum for scientific research and addressing challenging and innovative topics in Human Computer Interaction theory methodology and practice including for example novel theoretical approaches to interaction novel user interface concepts and technologies novel interaction devices UI development methods environments and tools multimodal user interfaces emotions in HCI aesthetic issues HCI and children evaluation methods and tools and many others Agent and Multi-Agent Systems: Technologies and Applications Anne Hakansson,Ronald Hartung,2009-05-25 This book constitutes the proceedings of the Third International Symposium on Agent and Multi Agent Systems Technologies and Applications held in Uppsala Sweden during June 3 5 2009 The 86 papers contained in this volume were carefully reviewed and selected from numerous submissions There are 13 main tracks covering the methodology and applications of agent and multi agent systems and 8 special sessions on specific topics within the field The papers are divided in topical sections on social and organizational structures of agents negotiation protocols mobile agents and robots agent design and implementation e commerce simulation systems and game systems agent systems and ontologies agents for network systems communication and agent learning systems Web services and semantic Web self organization in multi agent systems management and e business mobile and intelligent agents for networks and services engineering interaction protocols agent based simulation decision making and systems optimization digital economy agent based optimization ABO2009 distributed systems and artificial intelligence applications Carolina Currents, Studies in South Carolina Culture Meredith A. Love,Christopher D. Johnson,2026-04-09 From the Piedmont to the Lowcountry South Carolina is the site of countless engaging stories The contributors to Carolina Currents share those stories broadening our understanding of the state's unique and diverse histories and cultures. A venue for public-facing interdisciplinary scholarship, each volume presents a collection of essays that illuminate the complex interactions between the state's past and present. Essays in volume 3 explore the relationship between travel and resistance as exemplified by South Carolina's Green Book businesses, the complexities of race, religion, and criminal justice in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries, and campus-community connections at rural-serving colleges. Also included are an interview with novelist Lynn Kostoff and a review essay highlighting new books by South Carolina poets.

Empowering People with Severe Mental Illness Donald M. Linhorst, 2005-09-08

The concept of empowerment has become increasingly popular with mental health professionals. But while it is a frequently cited goal in the helping professions, empowerment is often nothing more than a buzzword that lacks specificity and grounding in real-world applications. Consequently, little practical guidance exists demonstrating how to achieve it in specific instances with specific groups of people. This book is the first professional guide that operationalizes the theory of empowerment, outlines the conditions under which it is likely to occur, and applies a practical model for working with people with severe mental illness. In this unique and thoroughly researched volume, Donald Linhorst analyzes the conditions that facilitate empowerment and provides the framework necessary to bolster this historically powerless population's access to the material and cultural resources they need to regain control of their lives. Chapters illustrate how to foster empowerment in treatment planning, housing selection, organizational decision-making, mental health service planning and policy-making, employment participation in research and evaluation, and consumer provision of mental health and support services. Case studies from a public psychiatric hospital and a community mental health agency illustrate each of the seven areas and present evidence of the model's efficacy. Finally, the book maps out the roles that service providers, administrators, policy makers, advocacy groups, researchers, and clients can play in the empowerment process. Checklists, step-by-step instructions, historical overviews, and vivid examples make this a valuable teaching tool, planning guide, and everyday reference for mental health professionals seeking an innovative and evidence-based approach to working with their clients with severe mental illness.

Critical Pluralism, Democratic Performance, and Community Power Paul Schumaker, 1991

Who governs is a central question in political science. Typically, political scientists address this question by relying upon either empirical analysis, which explains existing political practices, or normative analysis, which prescribes ideal political practices.

The Quest for Community and Identity Robert E. Birt, 2002

This collection of essays engages two of the most fundamental social and political issues of our time: community and identity. Wrestling with the perplexities of these two issues within the African world, the contributors delve into the influences of a postmodern world of globalization with outdated crumbling forms of identity and sociality In the wake of such an order new forms of identity and community must be established Birt has collected an informed group of contributors here who lay the foundation for a new approach to finding community and identity in the Africana world Mental Hygiene ,1919 Federal Antitrust Policy in the Health Care Marketplace Orrin G.
