Community Of Knowledge:

 Knowledge and Communities Eric L. Lesser,Michael A. Fontaine,Jason A. Slusher,2000 This is a compendium of articles that focus on how communities can be viewed from an organizational context and how organizations are using communities to leverege external stakeholders such as customers and suppliers Knowledge at Work Robert Defillippi,Michael Arthur,Valerie Lindsay,2009-02-04 This book s unique perspective stems from its knowledgediamond framework to examine how individuals communities organizations and host industries reciprocally influence each otherin the course of knowledge work This highly topical book focuses on work based projects as afocus for organizational learning Establishes the link between individual community organization and industry learning Suggests that organizations need to recognise and understandthis link if they are to capitalize on project basedlearning Incorporates material on project based learning in virtualcommunities Refers to different examples such as the film industry thesoftware industry and the boat building industry Includes end of chapter questions provoking reflection anddiscussion Seasonality of malnutrition: Community knowledge on patterns and causes of undernutrition in children and women in Laisamis, Marsabit County, Kenya Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations ,United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund ,Washington State University,2020-12-28 This report presents findings from a community participatory study conducted to determine the seasonality of malnutrition and factors associated with malnutrition among children and women in Laisamis subcounty Marsabit County The study was conducted as part of the Livestock for Health L4H project This project investigates the cost effectiveness of livestock feeding and nutritional counselling during critical dry periods in reducing the risk of acute malnutrition in children below 5 years of age and in pregnant and lactating women PLW The L4H project is based on the observed patterns of increased acute malnutrition associated with decreased milk consumption among women and children in pastoralist communities The study used a mixed methods approach to collect data from the two main communities Rendille and Samburu residing in Laisamis subcounty The aim of the study was to understand the communities livelihood patterns and strategies the observed temporal patterns of acute malnutrition in children and women the factors determining the malnutrition patterns and communities perspectives on practices and programming used to minimize malnutrition in the community The report outlines the key findings from the three data collection methods used key informant interviews focus group discussions and participatory epidemiology methods and gathering information from men and women from each of the two communities separately Routledge Handbook of Academic Knowledge Circulation Wiebke Keim,Leandro Rodriguez Medina,Rigas Arvanitis,Natacha Bacolla,Chandni Basu,Stéphane Dufoix,Stefan Klein,Mauricio Nieto Olarte,Barbara Riedel,Clara Ruvituso,Gernot Saalmann,Tobias Schlechtriemen,Hebe Vessuri,2023-06-30 Knowledge is a result of never ending processes of circulation This accessible volume is the first comprehensive multidisciplinary work to explore these processes through the perspective of scholars working outside of Anglo American paradigms Through a variety of literature reviews examples of recent research and in depth case studies the chapters demonstrate that the analysis of knowledge circulation requires a series of ontological and epistemic commitments that impact its conceptualisation and methodologies Bringing diverse viewpoints from across the globe and from a range of disciplines including anthropology economics history political science sociology and Science ii spaces and actors of circulation iii academic media and knowledge circulation iv the political economy of academic knowledge circulation v the geographies geopolitics and historical legacies of the global circulation of academic knowledge vi the relationships between academic and extra academic knowledges and vii methodological approaches to studying the circulation of academic knowledge This handbook will be essential reading for academics researchers and postgraduate researchers in the humanities and social sciences interested in the circulation of knowledge   Cultivating Communities of Practice Etienne Wenger,Richard Arnold McDermott,William Snyder,2002 Today s marketplace is fueled by knowledge Yet organizing systematically to leverage knowledge remains a challenge Leading companies have discovered that technology is not enough and that cultivating communities of practice is the keystone of an effective knowledge strategy Communities of practice come together around common interests and expertise whether they consist of first line managers or customer service representatives neurosurgeons or software programmers city managers or home improvement amateurs They create share and apply knowledge within and across the boundaries of teams business units and even entire companies providing a concrete path toward creating a true knowledge organization In Cultivating Communities of Practice Etienne Wenger Richard McDermott and William M Snyder argue that while communities form naturally organizations need to become more proactive and systematic about developing and integrating them into their strategy This book provides practical models and methods for stewarding these communities to reach their full potential without squelching the inner drive that makes them so valuable Through in depth cases from firms such as DaimlerChrysler McKinsey Company Shell and the World Bank the authors demonstrate how communities of practice can be leveraged to drive overall company strategy generate new business opportunities tie personal development to corporate goals transfer best practices and recruit and retain top talent They define the unique features of these communities and outline principles for nurturing their essential elements They provide guidelines to support communities of practice through their major stages of development address the potential downsides of communities and discuss the specific challenges of distributed communities And they show how to recognize the value created by communities of practice and how to build a corporate knowledge strategy around them Essential reading for any leader in today s knowledge economy this is the definitive guide to developing communities of practice for the benefit and long term success of organizations and the individuals who work in them Etienne Wenger is a renowned expert and consultant on knowledge management and communities of practice in San Juan California Richard McDermott is a leading expert of organization and community development in Boulder Colorado William M Snyder is a founding partner of Social Capital Group in Cambridge

Massachusetts   The Protection of Indigenous Knowledge in Africa Enyinna Nwauche,2025-02-25 This book provides a comprehensive contemporary and timely account of the protection of indigenous knowledge in Africa by examining issues such as the nature of indigenous knowledge as part of indigenous property and as the fulcrum of indigenous communities in Africa Acknowledging the centrality of the members of communities of origin in the production and reproduction of indigenous knowledge this book discusses options to manage the tension between members of the community communities of origin and their political community Furthermore the book abandons the conceptual distinction between negative and positive protection and turns towards a subject consideration of indigenous Scientific and Technical Indigenous Knowledge STIK indigenous heritage indigenous designs indigenous music indigenous audio visual indigenous signs expressions and terms as well as the indigenous literary works that are examined within the context of case studies of the indigenous knowledge human and peoples rights The book concludes that Africa s modest record of the protection of indigenous knowledge must factor in its extensive use as the foundation of Africa s entertainment industry and recommends a tripod of community participation and reward as principles of effective protection Building on the 2017 title of The Protection of Traditional Cultural Expressions in Africa this book adopts a mixed method of a legal pluralistic account of indigenous knowledge using intellectual property as a lens to view indigenous knowledge and a cultural production account of indigenous knowledge and will be useful to intellectual property lawyers sociologists economists Africanists innovation law and policy specialists and legal practitioners   The Outline of Knowledge: History of the world James Albert Richards,1924   Constructing the Infrastructure for the Knowledge Economy Henry Linger,Julie Fisher,W.
