Community Work Learning Supervision:

Community Work Catherine Briscoe, David N Thomas, 2023-11-05 In this title originally published in 1977 the authors brought together for the National Institute for Social Work experienced teachers and practitioners of community work in an integrated and carefully structured textbook which would further understanding of the means through which community workers develop their knowledge and skills Community Work Community work, 1977 Practice and Service Learning in Occupational Therapy Theresa Lorenzo, Madeleine Duncan, Helen Buchanan, Auldeen Alsop, 2006-07-11 While this book is based primarily on experiences of occupational therapy practice education in South Africa it aims to have international appeal as key principles of practice and service learning are drawn from the differing scenarios covered Based on qualitative research some of the book's chapters describe issues faced by students in complex practice situations and highlight educational strategies for promoting socially responsive professional development They show how students engage with the personal and professional challenges of working in a multicultural society and how situated learning can enhance their resourcefulness in meeting the needs of individuals groups and communities The book is divided into three sections The first on the practice education agenda establishes the academic rationale for various forms of practice learning within an occupational therapy curriculum The second section examines the learning opportunities offered by different practice contexts and highlights mechanisms for developing the professional identity of students The final section on enhancing potential reviews mechanisms that may be used for supporting students in the field and ends with a look at the future of practice education and how it might develop in response to social and international drivers Principles and Practice of Informal Education Linda Deer Richardson, Mary Wolfe, 2001 This new key text explores the principles and practice of informal education and focuses in particular on the notion of working with which is central to practice in this sector

Routledge International Handbook of Social Work Education Imogen Taylor, Marion Bogo, Michelle Lefevre, Barbra Teater, 2016-03-31 The Routledge International Handbook of Social Work Education provides an authoritative overview of current understanding through coverage of key debates exploring the state of play in particular social work education fields and reflecting on where the future might be taking us The overall aim of the Handbook is to further develop pedagogic research and scholarship for social work education Drawing on medical education as an exemplar the contributors view social work education as a specialism and a field of expertise that counts in the same way as research programmes in more traditional areas of social work practice The chapters are concerned with the theory and practice of social work education at all levels they are accessible conceptually clear research based where appropriate critically reflective and ethically underpinned The Handbook is organised into seven sections that reflect the proposed themes and sub themes covering Social work education in context the western drivers Emerging and re emerging social work education The scholarship of learning and teaching New insights into field education New directions in learning and teaching Future challenges in social work education This handbook presents a contribution to the process of exchange and dialogue which is essential to global social work education It brings together professional knowledge and lived experience both universal and local and will be an essential reference for social work educators researchers students and professionals Supervision as Collaboration in the Human Services Michael J. Austin, Karen Hopkins, 2004-03-23 The authors have assembled some of the finest minds in the field of supervision studies to produce Supervision as Collaboration in the Human Services Key aspects of a learning organization and the process of organizational learning are explored across the various human services social mental health health and aging making this an essential core text for graduate and undergraduate students of social work and counselling as well as for human services supervisors and practitioners Michigan Journal of Community Service Learning ,2005
