of the behavioral emotional and mental torment in a person's life is the psychological trauma that results from the actions and words of parents and others. This volume, Grendel and His Mother: Healing the Traumas of Childhood Through Dreams, Imagery and Hypnosis by Nicholas E. Brink, examines the effect of such trauma on a child's development and how the resulting torment eventually brings this child, as an adult, to psychotherapy. This trauma may be as subtle as a parental sigh of disappointment or as direct as physical or sexual abuse. Six clients are then led on a journeying through the unconscious mind using dream work, hypnosis, and imagery in the course of therapy to uncover and heal these traumas to free the client of torment.
