Dreaming And Storytelling:

Dreaming and Storytelling Bert O. States,1993 The meaning of dreams and the relationship between dreaming and the telling of stories Dreaming and Storytelling Marcia S. Pantell,2000 Decameron and the Philosophy of

Storytelling Richard Kuhns,2005-05-11 In this creative and engaging reading Richard Kuhns explores the ways in which Decameron's sexual themes lead into philosophical inquiry moral argument and aesthetic and literary criticism As he reveals the stories many philosophical insights and literary pleasures Kuhns also examines Decameron in the context of the nature of storytelling its relationship to other classic works of literature and the culture of trecento Italy Stories and storytelling are to be interpreted in terms of a wider cultural context that includes masks metamorphosis mythic themes and character analysis all of which Boccaccio explores with wit and subtlety As a storyteller Boccaccio represents himself as literary pimp conceiving the relationship between storyteller and audience in sexual terms within a tradition that goes back as far as Socrates conversations with the young Athenians As a whole Boccaccio's great collection of stories creates a trenchant criticism of the ideas that dominated his social and cultural world Addressed as it is to women who were denied opportunities for education the author's stories create a university of wise and culturally observant texts He teaches that comic religious sexual and artistic themes can be seen to function as metaphors for hidden and often dangerous unorthodox thoughts Kuhns suggests that Decameron is one of the first self-conscious creations of what we today call a total work of art Throughout the stories Boccaccio creates a detailed picture of the Florentine trecento cultural world Giotto Buffalmacco and other great painters of Boccaccio's time appear in the stories Their works and the paintings that surround the characters as they prepare to leave the plague-ridden city with their representations of Dante Aquinas and other thinkers are essential to understanding the ways the stories work with other works of art and illuminate and enlarge interpretations of Boccaccio's book

Narrative as Social Practice Danièle M. Klapproth,2004 This is a highly original comparative study of the oral storytelling traditions of two widely divergent cultures Anglo Western culture and Central Australian Aboriginal culture Concerned with both theoretical and empirical issues this book offers Borderlands Deborah Lock,Andrea Caputo,Dieu Hack-Polay,Paul Igwe,2022-10-20 This book provides a critical review of the impact of international academics on teaching practices in higher education As borders and boundaries become increasingly blurred and virtual citizenship starts to impact on ways of working being able to teach seamlessly across cultures and political divides will be critical to ensuring a thriving higher education sector This book captures the impact of academic mobility on teaching practices which have been informed by academics original cultures being modified to align with those of a host culture The book comprises three thematic sections which take the reader through the various stages of the internationalisation of higher education teaching practice It starts with how teaching identities are constructed and influenced by culture and geopolitical factors and concludes with an exploration into the emergence of the global teaching practitioner who is able to work seamlessly across borders and boundaries The core sections include i the geopolitics of teaching identities ii a sense of belonging and the lived experience of the academic nomad and iii academic transition from migration to integration Providing practical tools for improving both students learning experiences and academics classroom practices this volume will be of use to researchers students and practitioners from the social sciences specially business management and education as well as foreign language tutors and TEFL practitioners Human resource professionals recruiters and trainers responsible for recruiting training and developing international higher education staff will also find this book to be of interest

Targeting Writing Across the Curriculum Merryn Whitfield, 2001 Targeting across the curriculum book 3 upper primary The Dream Fox Story Book Mabel Osgood Wright, 1900 Reading for the Young, 1896 "Perchance to Dream", and Other Stories Margaret Sutton Briscoe, 1892 Captain Dreams, and Other Stories Charles King, 1896 Readings for the Young John Frederick Sargent, 1896 Studies in Dreams Mary Lucy Story-Maskelyne Arnold-Forster, 1921 Child-garden of Story, Song and Play, 1898 A First Nations Perspective Steven Kelly, 2025-05-30 This book is an extrapolation of the research I conducted for my doctoral thesis about my people s struggle to come to terms with native title claim processes in which we are required to prove our connection to land culture and kin This book offers a compelling and profound journey of Nanda people s existence over time It gives a robust understanding of the kinship and culture of my family group It differs from others in the same field as it has been produced from an insider s perspective it is about my family who are of the Murchison region of Western Australia The book presents the ways in which my family continues to hold strong connection to kin and Country through traditional practices that have survived and flourished regardless of colonialism This has been achieved through the privileging of my family s lived experiences and perceptions as told by Elders In addition I focus on the small details of our everyday lives to capture aspects of Country and kin Further insider positioning is incorporated in a critically reflexive way based on auto ethnographic accounts Each chapter of the book focuses on particular ideas that were developed over the course of the study The research provides examples of the historical and contemporary struggle of this Nanda family group's survival and recognition as traditional owners in a native title claim. Particular themes were recurrent features in many of my conversations with Elders. The theme of identity pertaining to how members of this family group identify with each other and with others was consistent throughout the process and is based on the love and respect between family members. Readers interested in Australian history, anthropology, cultural studies, and Indigenous studies will appreciate this book.
