Casing The Promised Land:

Casing the Promised Land Caleb Carr,1980      Casing a Promised Land, Expanded Edition H. L.

Goodall,1994-07-27 H L Goodall s ground breaking study of what people do with symbols and what symbols do to people explores the lives led by people in organizations His narratives take on the form of six detective mysteries in which the narrator figures into the plot of the intrigue and then works out its essential patterns In the first mystery Notes on a Cultural Evolution The Remaking of a Software Company Goodall looks at the transition of a Huntsville regional office of a Boston based computer software company where the lives and social dramas of the participants reflect the current state of high technology The second essay and perhaps the most insightful The Way the World Ends Inside Star Wars penetrates the various defenses of the Star Wars command office in Huntsville to discover its secrets and surprises Goodall shows how media technology fear of relationships and symbolic images of the future unite into the day to day operations of people who believe they are responsible for the outer limits of our nation s defense Lost in Space The Layers of Illusion Called Adult Space Camp illustrates how a supposedly innocent theme park invites participation in rituals and ceremonies designed to influence a future generation of taxpayers In Articles of Faith Goodall enters a super mall in Huntsville noting how shopping centers provide consumers with far more than places to purchase goods and services How I Spent My Summer Vacation finds Goodall back in an academic environment at a conference of communication scholars where he demonstrates the difficult task of translating cultural understandings from one context to another The Consultant as Organizational Detective offers the sobering message that real life mysteries may surprise even the most accomplished sleuth A concluding chapter Notes on Method and a new autobiographical afterword round out Goodall s penetrating look at our symbol making culture

Divine Signs H. Lloyd Goodall, 1996 Divine Signs is the concluding volume of the ethnographic trilogy about the communicative tensions in everyday American cultural life H L Goodall Jr began with Casing a Promised Land and continued with Living in the Rock n Roll Mystery In this final work the terms for understanding these tensions are found in a historical and mythological drama featuring Power as the embodiment of the modern Other as the embodiment of the postmodern and Spirit as the unifying power capable of connecting disparate selves to dangerously fragmented communities For this study the localized site of interpretation is in and around Pickens and Oconee Counties South Carolina where every day street signs business advertisements on billboards signs that announce church themes Internet postings and other forms of public communication that invite private meanings are read as rhetorical invitations to participate in these myths and mysteries Using themes discoverable in such public forms of communication Goodall deconstructs a variety of communal experiences from annual community celebrations to weekly therapy sessions in local beauty salons to the fall audience rituals of Clemson University football games to gain a deeper appreciation of the unifying symbolic orders that enrich the interpretive possibilities of our lives and that serve as signs of our deeply spiritual connections to each other and to the planet In the last sections of the book the interplays of Power Other and Spirit are read into and against a wide variety of everyday interpretive contexts from Rush Limbaugh and talk radio to narratives about angels and stories about the transformative powers of spiritual practices in organizations Goodall then asks the important question Where are the themes of this mythological drama leading us In the stunning conclusion Goodall creates communicative cultural and spiritual challenges for us all
