Dan Flavin:

Dan Flavin Tiffany Bell, Michael Govan, 2004-01-01 New scholarship and interpretation of Flavin's work also appears in the form of three critical essays by experts and an extensive chronology, comprehensive bibliography and exhibition history. In addition, this book includes Flavin's text in daylight or cool white, an autobiographical sketch originally published in Artforum in 1965 and two interviews with the artist, one from 1972 and the other from 1982. BOOK JACKET Dan Flavin, Fluorescent Light, Etc Dan Flavin, National Gallery of Canada, Vancouver Art Gallery, 1969 Dan Flavin Jeffrey Weiss, 2006-01-01 In making light his primary medium, Dan Flavin (1933-1996) established himself as one of the most innovative and significant artists of the minimalist movement. A new generation encountered Flavin's work through the critically acclaimed exhibition Dan Flavin: A Retrospective, which opened in October 2004 at the National Gallery of Art, Washington. Dan Flavin: New Light includes essays that respond to this exhibition and to the renewed interest in Flavin's work and its place in 20th-century art. In this volume, six leading scholars of contemporary art consider the ambiguities and multiple resonances of Flavin's light works. Each addresses the ontological complexity of the work object, based yet situational and painterly in its deployment of colored light within the insistently sculptural world of minimalism. The book's contributors interpret this tension by exploring Flavin's early assemblages, the relationship of drawing to his installation practice, the specificity of his materials and their operation in actual space, and the openly ambivalent place of Flavin's work within the history of late modernism. Also available from Yale University Press: DAN FLAVIN: A RETROSPECTIVE ISBN 0 300 10632 7; DAN FLAVIN: THE COMPLETE LIGHTS ISBN 0 300 10633 5. Dan Flavin, 2014 Dan Flavin: Series and Progressions Dan Flavin, 2015-08-25 Described by fellow artist Mel Bochner as one of the first artists to make use of a basically progressional procedure, influential Minimalist artist Dan Flavin was known for his systematic arrangement of color and light. This major monograph was published on the occasion of Dan Flavin: Series and Progressions, the first exhibition of the artist's work held in 2009 at David Zwirner in New York, since the gallery announced its representation of Dan Flavin. Featuring over fifty full-color plates of exemplary works made between 1963 and 1990, in addition to a comprehensive selection of installation views, archival photographs and documents, this publication carefully examines Flavin's use of progressions and serial structures, ideas that were central to his practice throughout his career. It also describes how his manipulations of color and light were aspects of his work that not only led to it being characterized as Minimalist art but came to define and influence Conceptual artistic practices. Dan Flavin: Series and Progressions includes new scholarship by noted Flavin scholar and curator Tiffany Bell, author of the artist's catalogue raisonné, Anne Rorimer, Richard Shiff, and Alexandra Whitney, an interview with Dan Graham, and a facsimile of the original catalogue from Flavin's 1967-1968 exhibition alternating pink and gold at the Museum of Contemporary Art, Chicago. Additional context is provided by a detailed illustrated chronology which documents historical exhibitions of Flavin's work. Dan Flavin Michael Govan, Dan Flavin, Tiffany
