Dangerous Alliances:

Dangerous Alliances Patricia A. Weitsman, 2004 Military alliances drive international politics They embody conflict and cooperation among states and shape the international political landscape Despite the profound effect alliances have on the course of international politics many gaps remain in our understanding of their formation continuance and cohesion In this book Patricia Weitsman introduces a comprehensive theory that unifies current ideas about alliances and examines the relationship between threat and alliance politics under conditions of both war and peace Examining military alliances before and during World War I Weitsman provides a new interpretation of the politics of the great powers of this period She reveals that states frequently form alliances to keep peace among the allied countries not simply to counter shared external threats Though alliances may be perceived by others to present a unified and threatening front countries often face significant threats from within their own alliances It is this paradox that underscores Weitsman's theory although alliances are frequently forged to sustain peace they may in fact increase the prospects of war Dangerous Alliances Lise Garon, 2003-06 This study of Magreb's highly erratic encounter with democratization illuminates the complex and diverse encounters between civil society and the authorities in Tunisia Algeria and Morocco As opposition has built up in each society those in power have confronted the pressures for democratization The author examines the role of the media in particular both within these countries and internationally as contested but often compliant terrain between governments and dissidents She uses a dynamic systems model incorporating the existence of fundamental conflict to show how democratic institutions can become institutionalized and the constant possibility of any democratic transition being reversed Dangerous Alliances: Russia's Strategic Inroads in Latin America Douglas Farah, Marianne Richardson, 2022 Caregiver Alliances for At-risk and Dangerous Youth Elaine A.
