Daniel Half Human And The Good Nazi:

Daniel Half Human David Chotjewitz,2006-03-01 At the dawn of Hitler s rise to power in Germany in 1933 and a period of the most brutal aggressive anti Semitism the world has ever seen two boys swear eternal brotherhood by slitting their wrists and mingling their blood Having experienced so much together even a night in jail after painting a swastika on a wall in the hated Communist section of Hamburg Daniel and Armin had become the best of friends But then with the scar on his wrist still healing Daniel receives some life altering news He is half Jewish and as such half hated by a growing number of neighbors teachers and friends Quickly he decides to keep his identity a secret conspiring with Armin to join the Hitler Youth but only one of them can and will join with terrible consequences Daniel Halber Mensch David Chotjewitz,2004 See

Daniel, Half Human David Chotjewitz,2004 In 1933 best friends Daniel and Armin admire Hitler but as anti Semitism buoys Hitler to power Daniel learns he is half Jewish threatening the friendship even as life in their beloved Hamburg Germany is becoming nightmarish Also details Daniel and Armin s reunion in 1945 in interspersed chapters Tolerance Discourse and Young Adult Holocaust Literature Rachel Dean-Ruzicka,2016-11-25 What exactly does one mean when idealizing tolerance as a solution to cultural conflict This book examines a wide range of young adult texts both fiction and memoir representing the experiences of young adults during WWII and the Holocaust Author Rachel Dean Ruzicka argues for a progressive reading of this literature Tolerance Discourse and Young Adult Holocaust Literature contests the modern discourse of tolerance encouraging educators and readers to more deeply engage with difference and identity when studying Holocaust texts Young adult Holocaust literature is an important nexus for examining issues of identity and difference because it directly confronts systems of power privilege and personhood The text delves into the wealth of material available and examines over forty books written for young readers on the Holocaust and in the last chapter neo Nazism The book also looks at representations of non Jewish victims such as the Romani the disabled and homosexuals In addition to critical analysis of the texts each chapter reads the discourses of tolerance and cosmopolitanism against present day cultural contexts ongoing debates regarding multicultural education gay and lesbian rights and neo Nazi activities The book addresses essential questions of tolerance and toleration that have not been otherwise considered in Holocaust studies or cultural studies of children s literature Integrating Literature in the Content Areas Sharon Kane,2017-05-12 This practical accessible resource will help future and practicing teachers integrate literature into their middle school or high school classrooms while also addressing content area standards and improving the literacy skills of their students Two introductory chapters are followed by five chapters that each cover a different genre Chapter 3 Informational Books Chapter 4 Fiction Chapter 5 Biography Autobiography and Memoir Chapter 6 Poetry and Chapter 7 How to and Hands on Books Each genre chapter consists of four parts Part 1 Discusses the genre and how content area teachers can use books within that genre to further content learning and enhance literacy skills Part 2 Offers hands on instructional strategies and activities using literature with activities for use in a variety of disciplines Part 3 Presents individual author studies three or four per chapter with bibliographies and guidelines for using the authors books in content area courses Part 4 Features an annotated bibliography of specially selected children and young adult literature for that genre organized by content area The annotations provide information about the book which can be used to prepare booktalks and teaching ideas for using in a specific content area Altogether these sections contain more than 600 annotated entries tabbed by subject area including art English language arts languages and culture math and technology music PE health science and social studies history
