Das Parfum:

Das Parfum Patrick Süskind, 1994 Ein rares Meisterwerk zeitgenössischer Prosa eine dicht gesponnene psychologisch raffiniert umgesetzte Erzählung die an die frühen Stücke von Patricia Highsmith erinnert in ihrer Kunstfertigkeit aber an die Novellistik großer europäischer Erzähltradition anknüpft

PERFUME Patrick Suskind, 1986-09-12 The year is 1738 the place Paris A baby is born under a fish monger's bloody table in a marketplace and abandoned Orphaned passed over to the monks as a charity case already there is something in the aura of the tiny infant that is unsettling No one will look after him he is somehow too demanding and even more disturbing something is missing as his wet nurse tries to explain he doesn't smell the way a baby should smell indeed he has no scent at all Slowly as we watch Jean Baptiste Grenouille cling stubbornly to life we begin to realize that a monster is growing before our eyes With mounting unease yet hypnotized we see him explore his powers and their effect on the world around him For this dark and sinister boy who has no smell himself possesses an absolute sense of smell and with it he can read the world to discover the hidden truths that elude ordinary men He can smell the very composition of objects and their history and where they have been he has no need of the light and darkness is not dark to him because nothing can mask the odors of the universe As he leaves childhood behind and comes to understand his terrible uniqueness his obsession becomes the quest to identify and then to isolate the most perfect scent of all the scent of life itself At first he hones his powers learning the ancient arts of perfume making until the exquisite fragrances he creates are the rage of Paris and indeed Europe Then secure in his mastery of these means to an end he withdraws into a strange and agonized solitude waiting dreaming until the morning when he wakes ready to embark on his monstrous quest to find and extract from the most perfect living creatures the most beautiful young virgins in the land that ultimate perfume which alone can make him too fully human As his trail leads him at an ever quickening pace from his savage exile to the heart of the country and then back to Paris we are caught up in a rising storm of terror and mortal sensual conquest until the frenzy of his final triumph explodes in all its horrifying consequences Told with dazzling narrative brilliance and the haunting power of a grown up fairy tale Perfume is one of the most remarkable novels of the last fifty years

German adaptations however this book also traces the role of literature originally written in German in international film productions which sheds light on the interrelation between cinema and key historical events It outlines how processes of adaptation are shaped by global catastrophes and the emergence of nations by materialist conditions liberal economies and capitalist imperatives political agendas the mobility of individuals and sometimes by the desire to create reflective surfaces and perhaps even art Commercial cinema s adaptation practices have foregrounded economic interest but numerous filmmakers throughout cinema history have turned to German language literature not simply to entertain but as a creative contribution to the public sphere marking adaptation practice at least potentially as a form of active citizenship Beyond Postmodernism Klaus Stierstorfer,2003 After the veritable hype concerning postmodernism in the 1980s and early 1990s when questions about when it began what it means and which texts it comprises were apt to trigger heated discussions the excitement has notably cooled down at the turn of the century Voices are now beginning to be heard which seem to suggest a new episteme in the making which points beyond postmodernism while it remains at the same time very uncertain whether what appears as newness is not rather a return to traditional concepts theoretical premises and authorial practices Contributors to this volume propose to explore new openings and recent developments in anglophone literatures and cultural theories which engage with issues seen to be central in the construction of a postmodern paradigm but deal with them in ways that promise new openings or a new Zeitgeist German Film Deutsche Kinemathek - Museum für Film und Fernsehen,2024-10-23 Comprehensive German film history German Film From the Archives of the Deutsche Kinemathek offers a captivating journey through the history of German cinema from the earliest moving images of 1895 to the present day This richly illustrated volume opens the Deutsche Kinemathek s archives illuminating the artistic technical political and social developments that have shaped German film In twelve chapters over 420 essays tell the stories of both celebrated and lesser known films paying tribute to the creativity of the many personalities who continue to shape German cinema Featuring more than 2 700 items from unpublished photographs to historic film posters the book provides a unique look into a vital cultural heritage The Deutsche Kinemathek one of the world s leading institutions for preserving audiovisual history safeguards this piece of German film legacy for future generations A must have for film enthusiasts history buffs and fans of German cinema From the archives of the Deutsche Kinemathek A thoughtfully edited and beautifully produced heavyweight The standard reference on German film history The DEUTSCHE KINEMATHEK is one of the world s leading institutions for the collection preservation and presentation of audio visual heritage Hundreds of thousands of objects are permanently preserved in its archives and are available for research into film and television history In addition to scripts photos posters costumes and designs the collection also includes film equipment The Kinemathek curates film series and exhibitions and restores and digitizes films Its diverse activities including installations publications educational formats and conferences encourage visitors to discover the world of moving images Encyclopedia of German Literature Matthias

Historical Dictionary of Postwar German Literature William Grange,2009-07-09 Some authors strongly criticized attempts to rebuild a German literary culture in the aftermath of World War II while others actively committed themselves to dealing with the German past There are writers in Austria and Switzerland that find other contradictions of contemporary life troubling while some find them funny or even worth celebrating German postwar literature has in the minds of some observers developed a kind of split personality In view of the traumatic monstrosities of the previous century that development may seem logical to some The Historical Dictionary of Postwar German Literature is devoted to modern literature produced in the German language whether from Germany Austria Switzerland or writers using German in other countries This volume covers an extensive period of time beginning in 1945 at what was called zero hour for German literature and proceeds into the 21st century concluding in 2008 This is done through a list of acronyms and abbreviations a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on writers such as Nobel Prize winners Heinrich B ll G nter Grass Elias Canetti Elfriede Jelinek and W G Sebald There are also entries on individual works genres movements literary styles and forms
