Geography (RLE Social & Cultural Geography) John Paterson, 2014-01-23 The emphasis of this book is to explore two major philosophical influences in contemporary human geography namely logical positivism and Marxism and to explore the relationships between philosophy methodology and geographical research Rather than being a biography of David Harvey the book contributes to the understanding of one of the most innovative and iconoclastic scholars in contemporary Anglo American human geography The Limits to Capital David Harvey, 2018-11-06 A major rereading of Marx s critique of political economy Now a classic of Marxian economics The Limits to Capital provides one of the best theoretical guides to the history and geography of capitalist development In this edition Harvey updates his seminal text with a substantial discussion of the turmoil in world markets today Delving into concepts such as fictitious capital and uneven geographical development Harvey takes the reader step by step through layers of crisis formation beginning with Marx s controversial argument concerning the falling rate of profit and closing with a timely foray into the geopolitical and geographical implications of Marx s work David Harvey's Geography John L. Paterson, 1984 Spaces of Hope David Harvey, 2000 There is no question that David Harvey s work has been one of the most important influential and imaginative contributions to the development of human geography since the Second World War His readings of Marx are arresting and original a remarkably fresh return to the foundational texts of historical materialism Derek Gregory author of Geographical Imaginations

Spaces of Global Capitalism David Harvey, 2019-03-12 Fiscal crises have cascaded across much of the developing world with devastating results from Mexico to Indonesia Russia and Argentina The extreme volatility in contemporary political economic fortunes seems to mock our best efforts to understand the forces that drive development in the world economy David Harvey is the single most important geographer writing today and a leading social theorist of our age offering a comprehensive critique of contemporary capitalism In this fascinating book he shows the way forward for just such an understanding enlarging upon the key themes in his recent work the development of neoliberalism the spread of inequalities across the globe and space as a key theoretical concept Both a major declaration of a new research programme and a concise introduction to David Harvey s central concerns this book will be essential reading for scholars and students across the humanities and social sciences

Rebel Cities David Harvey, 2012-04-04 Long before Occupy cities were the subject of much utopian thinking They are the centers of capital accumulation as well as of revolutionary politics where deeper currents of social and political change rise to the surface Do the financiers and developers control access to urban resources or do the people Who dictates the quality and organization of daily life Rebel Cities places the city at the heart of both capital and class struggles looking at locations ranging from Johannesburg to Mumbai from New York City to So Paulo Drawing on the Paris Commune as well as Occupy Wall Street and the London Riots Harvey asks how cities might be reorganized in more socially just and ecologically sane ways and how they can become the focus for anti capitalist resistance A Social History of Modern Tehran Ashkan Rezvani Naraghi, 2023-01-05 Tehran the capital of Iran since the late eighteenth century is now one of the largest cities in the Middle East Exploring Tehran's development from the nineteenth to the mid twentieth century Ashkan Rezvani Naraghi paints a vibrant picture of a city undergoing rapid and dynamic social transformation Rezvani Naraghi demonstrates that this shift was the product of a developing discourse around spatial knowledge in which the West became the model for the social practices of the state and sections of Iranian society As traditional social spaces such as coffee houses bathhouses and mosques were replaced by European style cafes theatres and sports clubs Tehran and its people were irreversibly altered Using an array of archival sources Rezvani Naraghi stresses the agency of everyday inhabitants in shaping urban change This enlightening history not only allows us to better understand the contours of contemporary Tehran but to develop a new way of imagining talking about and building the city

Spaces of Neoliberalization David Harvey, 2005 In these essays David Harvey searches for adequate conceptualizations of space and of uneven geographical development that will help to understand the new historical geography of global capitalism The theory of uneven geographical development needs further examination The extreme volatility in contemporary political economic fortunes across and between spaces of the world economy cries out for better historical geographical analysis and theoretical interpretation The political necessity is just as urgent since social inequalities have increased in recent decades Fiscal crises have cascaded across much of the developing world with devastating results from Mexico to Indonesia Russia and Argentina Simultaneously the different oppositional movements to neoliberalism create both opportunities and barriers in the search for alternatives Harvey shows that this search needs to be supported by a deeper theoretical understanding of the roles of space and uneven geographical development in shaping the world around us
