Dancing on Our Bones Trevor Lawson Richards, 2009 One of the founders of Halt All Racist Tours writes about the development of protests against sporting contacts between New Zealand and South Africa from the 1921 Springbok versus Maori game through to 1985 when the All Black tour of South Africa was cancelled Dancing on Our Bones Trevor Lawson Richards, 1999 Leading New Zealand anti apartheid campaigner Trevor Richards has written this history of New Zealand's contribution to the fight against racism and apartheid in South Africa The story of the protests is vividly told but it is not an account of one man's battle against the system it is a serious history of a crucial part of our recent past His Way Barry Gustafson, 2000 Robert Muldoon was Prime Minister of New Zealand for eight and a half years 1975-1984 and Minister of Finance for fifteen years 1967-72 and 1975-84 during one of the most difficult periods in the country's history He was the dominant figure in New Zealand's political life over the last half century and one of its most controversial and divisive politicians This major authorised biography has occupied Professor Gustafson for ten years it has been extensively researched and long awaited From the opening chapters with their revealing account of Muldoon's childhood His Way is gripping reading and will be of wide interest The chapters on the calling of the 1984 election and on the currency crisis immediately after the election for example break new ground Gustafson's view of Muldoon is fair and tolerant without either anger or sentimentality It sees him as a champion of ordinary people a skilled politician determined to preserve the world he had inherited and an autocratic leader whose vision over time became anachronistic and inflexible His Way is also and inevitably a picture of the changing political landscape from the 1940s to the 1980s turbulent times very different from the years of depression and war in which Muldoon grew up and which so powerfully shaped his values and perspectives The book is based on many hours of conversation with Muldoon himself and on interviews with political colleagues civil servants family and friends it is rich with telling detail and revealing anecdote Gustafson's masterly biography provides for the first time a detached and detailed assessment of an extraordinary political figure Sport and the New Zealanders Greg Ryan, Geoff Watson, 2018-08-09 A history of New Zealanders and the sports that we have made our own from the Maori world to today's professional athletes those two mighty products of the land the Canterbury lamb and the All Blacks have made New Zealand what she is in spite of politicians' claims to the contrary wrote Dick Brittenden in 1954 For many in New Zealand prowess at sport replaces the social graces in the pubs during the furious session between 5pm and closing time an hour later the friend of a relative of a horse trainer is a veritable patriarch No matador in Madrid no tenor in Turin could be sure of such flattering attention As Brittenden suggested sport has played a central part in the social and cultural history of Aotearoa New Zealand throughout its history This book tells the story of sport in New Zealand for the first time from the Maori world to today's professional athletes Through rugby and netball bodybuilding and surf lifesaving the book introduces readers to the history of the codes the organisations and the players It takes us into the stands and on to the sidelines to examine the meaning of sport to its participants its followers and to the communities to which they belonged Why did rugby become much more important than soccer in New Zealand What role have Maori played in our sporting life Do we really punch above our weight in international sport Does sport still define our national identity Viewing New Zealand sport as activity and as imagination Sport and the New Zealanders is a major history of a central strand of New Zealand life The Dial Francis Fisher Browne,1929 Scribner's Monthly ,1880 The academy ,1884 Peter the Great, Emperor of Russia Eugene Schuyler,1884 Langholm as it was John Hyslop,Robert Hyslop,1912 The Eye of Istar William Le Queux,1897 The Eye of Istar follows Zafar Ben A Ziz on his return from London to his home in Omdurman Sudan While traveling through the Sahara Zafar is taken prisoner by the Veiled Men of the Desert and it is at the start of his imprisonment that he meets Azala a Sultan s daughter They fall in love and Zafar is determined to free Azala from her isolated life in a harem But he soon discovers a dark power connected to a mysterious mark shared by the pair that complicates his mission The Green Book Magazine ,1916 The Boy in the Bush David Herbert Lawrence,Mary Louisa Skinner,1924 Scribners Monthly Josiah Gilbert Holland,Richard Watson Gilder,1881 The Theosophist ,1930 Early Records of Simpson Families in Scotland, North Ireland, and Eastern United States Helen Augusta Simpson,1927 The Month ,1873 The Trident of Delta Delta Delta Delta Delta,1921 Academy and Literature Charles Edward Cutts Birch Appleton,Charles Edward Doble,James Sutherland Cotton,Charles Lewis Hind,William Teignmouth Shore,Alfred Bruce Douglas,Ellis Ashmead-Bartlett,Thomas William Hodgson Crosland,1884 Hidden River Stephanie Norgate,2008 Stephanie Norgate s compelling poems celebrate our sensuous contact with each other and with nature With subjects ranging from a child s first enjoyment of speech to a lover s lost dialect they make invisible experiences tangible through vivid and intense imagery Lovers in a mud bath are transformed into a new vision of creation The private rituals of birth love and loss imprint themselves on the landscape with a strong magical sense of rawness and eroticism Gerry Stewart in poems all about skin that thin protective coating the point of contact between inner and outer worlds Jenny Swann Hidden River is Stephanie Norgate s first book length collection and follows a prize winning pamphlet Fireclay praised by John Walsh in the Independent as the work of a marvellous new poet Her poems share a passionate concern for survival for the authentic life of the body and for all the elements but especially water its touch and surface its buoyancy and nourishment the flowing rhythms that enter us They begin to explore nothing less than human invention Jo Shapcott as they chart strong currents between the dispossessed and the natural world Hidden River was shortlisted for the Forward Prize for Best First Collection and for the Jerwood Aldeburgh First Collection Prize The Dynasts Thomas Hardy,1910
