Dissident Writings of Arab Women Brinda J. Mehta, 2014-03-14 Dissident Writings of Arab Women Voices Against Violence analyzes the links between creative dissidence and inscriptions of violence in the writings of a selected group of postcolonial Arab women The female authors destabilize essentialist framings of Arab identity through a series of reflective interrogations and contesting literary genres that include novels short stories poetry docudramas interviews and testimonials Rejecting a purist literature for literature s sake ethic they embrace a dissident poetics of feminist critique and creative resistance as they engage in multiple and intergenerational border crossings in terms of geography subject matter language and transnationality This book thus examines the ways in which the women s writings provide the blueprint for social justice by voicing protest and stimulating critical thought particularly in instances of social oppression structural violence and political transition Providing an interdisciplinary approach which goes beyond narrow definitions of literature as aesthetic praxis to include literature's added value as a social historical political and cultural palimpsest this book will be a useful resource for students and scholars of North African Studies Postcolonial Studies Francophone Studies and Feminist Studies

Dangerous Pursuits Alanna Knight, 2006 Rose McQuinn returns to investigate a missing body a missing police report and a deadly killer with his eyes set on Rose herself

Family, Violence and Gender in African Anglophone Novels and Contemporary Terrorist Threats Chi Sum Garfield Lau, 2017-05-11 This book investigates how the breakdown of the family and the conventional gendering of roles gives rise to terrorist violence as portrayed in various African Anglophone narratives written by internationally renowned authors including Chinua Achebe Doris Lessing J M Coetzee and the award winning contemporary Moroccan author Laila Lalami It proves that the indispensable relationship between an eroding family structure and terror is not only an observation found in African Anglophone narratives but rather that this relationship can help us to better comprehend terror as a globalized phenomenon in the twenty first century Both the novels and the real life cases of various terrorist figures such as Osama bin Laden and Mohamed Morsi seemingly suggest a linkage between an alternative family institution in the form of fundamentalist religious sects and terror Referencing paratexts in fiction and biography the book adopts a ground breaking approach to juxtapose the portrayal of fictional characters to the life story of Malala Yousafzai a Pakistani student who has resisted Taliban rule in Afghanistan at great personal risk When viewed together these paratexts capably represent a viable afterlife of ideology and narrative to the colonial legacy of terror and the reinvention of that legacy as a tradition of contemporary fundamentalism in response to the failure of states to protect the family
