Daniel Buren:

Daniel Buren Daniel Buren, 2007 In this book Daniel Buren investigates the significance of place and context in contemporary art using his trademark stripes Daniel Buren Daniel Buren, Daniel Buren Daniel Buren, Marc Sanchez, Jean-Marie Gallais, 2012 French conceptual artist Daniel Buren is the fifth artist to take over the Grand Palais in Paris His offering is Excentrique s a giant kaleidoscope style installation that fills the building s nave Daniel Buren Daniel Buren, 2015-05-21 Art History after Deleuze and Guattari Sjoerd van Tuinen , Stephen Zepke, 2017-11-14 At the crossroads of philosophy artistic practice and art history Though Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari were not strictly art historians they reinvigorated ontological and formal approaches to art and simultaneously borrowed art historical concepts for their own philosophical work They were dedicated modernists inspired by the German school of expressionist art historians such as Riegl W Ifflin and Worringer and the great modernist art critics such as Rosenberg Steinberg Greenberg and Fried The work of Deleuze and Guattari on mannerism and Baroque art has led to new approaches to these artistic periods and their radical transdisciplinarity has influenced contemporary art like no other philosophy before it Their work therefore raises important methodological questions on the differences and relations among philosophy artistic practice and art history In Art History after Deleuze and Guattari international scholars from all three fields explore what a Deleuzo Guattarian art history could be today Contributors ric Alliez Kingston University Universit Paris VIII Claudia Bl mle Humboldt Universit t zu Berlin Jean Claude Bonne cole des Hautes tudes en Sciences Sociales Ann Cathrin Drews Humboldt Universit t zu Berlin James Elkins School of the Art Institute of Chicago Sascha Freyberg Max Planck Institute for the History of Science Antoine l Heureux independent researcher Vlad Ionescu Hasselt University Juan Fernando Mej a Mosquera Pontificia Universidad Javeriana Gustavo Chirolla Ospina Pontificia Universidad Javeriana Bertrand Pr vost Universit Bordeaux MONTAIGNE Elisabeth von Samsonow Akademie f r bildende K nste Wien Sjoerd van Tuinen Erasmus University Rotterdam Kamini Vellodi Edinburgh College of Art Stephen Zepke independent researcher DANIEL BUREN Daniel Burren, 1987 Art Of The Postmodern Era Irving Sandler, 2018-05-30 Sandler discusses the major and minor artists and their works movements ideas attitudes and styles and the social and cultural context of the period He covers post modernist art theory the art market and consumer society American and European art and artists are included Daniel Buren Daniel Buren, Robin White, 1979 Color Chart Ann Temkin, 2008 Color Chart celebrates a paradox the lush beauty that results when contemporary artists assign colour decisions to chance readymade source or arbitrary system Midway through the 20th century long held convictions regarding the spiritual truth or scientific validity of particular colours gave way to an excitement about colour as a mass produced and standardized commercial product The Romantic quest for personal expression instead became Andy Warhol s I want to be a machine the artistry of mixing pigments was eclipsed by Frank Stella s Straight out of the can it can t get better than that This book and the exhibition it accompanies is the first devoted to this pivotal transformation and features work by some forty artists ranging from Ellsworth Kelly and Gerhard Richter to Sherrie Levine and Damien Hirst The Studio Reader Mary Jane Jacob, Michelle Grabner, 2010-06-15 The image of a tortured genius working in near isolation has long dominated our conceptions of the artist's studio. Examples abound: think Jackson Pollock dripping resin on a cicada carcass in his shed in the Hamptons. But times have changed ever since Andy Warhol declared his art space a factory; artists have begun to envision themselves as the leaders of production teams and their sense of what it means to be in the studio has altered just as dramatically as their practices. The Studio Reader pulls back the curtain from the art world to reveal the real activities behind artistic production. What does it mean to be in the studio? What is the space of the studio in the artist's practice? How do studios help artists envision their agency and beyond that their own lives? This forward-thinking anthology features an all-star array of contributors ranging from Svetlana Alpers, Bruce Nauman, and Robert Storr to Daniel Buren, Carolee Schneemann, and Buzz Spector, each of whom locates the studio both spatially and conceptually at the center of an art world that careens across institutions, markets, and disciplines. A companion for anyone engaged with the spectacular sites of art at its making, The Studio Reader reconsiders this crucial space as an actual way of being that illuminates our understanding of both artists and the world they inhabit. Disordering the Establishment Lily Woodruff, 2020-05-26 Lily Woodruff examines the development of artistic strategies of political resistance in France in the decades following World War II, showing how artists countered establishment ideology, challenged traditional art institutions, appealed to direct political engagement, and grappled with French intellectuals' modeling of society. 5 texts Daniel Buren, 1983 Daniel Buren Daniel Buren, 1986 Daniel Buren Daniel Buren, 1989 Daniel Buren Arts Club of Chicago, Daniel Buren, 2006 Daniel Buren Daniel Buren, Irith Hadar, 1999 Daniel Buren Daniel Buren, Hirshhorn Museum and Sculpture Garden, 1989 Urban Maps Richard Brook, Nick Dunn, 2013-01-01 This book concerns the city and the devices that define the urban environment by their presence, representation, or interpretation. The texts offer an interdisciplinary discourse and critique of the complex systems, artifacts, interventions, and evidences that can inform our understanding of urban territories on surfaces in the margins or within voids. The diverse media of arts practices, as well as commercial branding, are used to explore narratives that reveal latent characteristics of urban situations that conventional architectural inquiry is unable to do. Daniel Buren, Intervention II, Works in Situ Daniel Buren, Suzanne Cotter, 2006 Daniel Buren is one of France's most significant living artists. Since he first began working with what has become his signature motif of alternating white and coloured stripes of equal and non-variable sizes in 1965, Buren has created dramatic, playful, and thought-provoking interventions in museums, galleries, and public spaces that question the relationship between art and the structures that frame it. This new book, published to coincide with the artist's first major exhibition in the UK for twenty years, features an interview with the artist and documentation of his work at Modern Art Oxford 2006-07. His first exhibition in a public gallery in this country was held at Modern Art Oxford in 1973, for which he suspended a series of vertically striped canvases from the superstructure of the main upstairs gallery to create a sequence of flowing vertical planes that cut across the space at right angles to the gallery's outer walls. In 2006 Buren revisits the Gallery's spaces with a new intervention. This exhibition is part of Paris Calling, a season of contemporary art from France taking place across UK museums and galleries. Includes an interview with the artist by Jerome Sans.

Unconcealed, the International Network of Conceptual Artists 1967-77 Sophie Richard, 2009. Unconcealed describes the emergence of Conceptual art in Northern Europe through the growth of an international network of artists, dealers, museum curators, collectors, and critics. A detailed account of this decade (1967-1977) is accompanied by an extensive set of previously unpublished data that charts the exhibitions and sales of Conceptual works to galleries, public institutions, and private collections. The relationships, support structures, and strategies of dealer galleries such as Konrad Fischer, Wide White Space, and Lisson Gallery to promote artists such as Marcel Broodthaers, Richard Long, and Lawrence Weiner are revealed and make fascinating reading. Unconcealed exposes the new dealing, curatorial, collecting, and teaching methods formed in this decade that continue to be critical to today's art world.
