Schor, 2000-01-27 Feminist criticism has not been kind to Charles Dickens The characters George Orwell referred to as legless angels Little Nell Agnes Wickfield Esther Summerson and others have been conjured as evidence of Dickens inability to create real women Critics wishing to rescue him have turned to the dark angry women Nancy Lady Dedlock Miss Wade who disrupt the calm surface of some of Dickens novels In this book Hilary M Schor argues that the role of the good daughter is interwoven with that of her angry double in Dickens fiction and is the centre of narrative authority in the Dickens novel As the good daughters must leave their father's house and enter the world of the marketplace they transform and rewrite the stories they are empowered to tell The daughter's uncertain legal status and her power of narrative gave Dickens a way of reading and writing his own culture differently To My Daughter, with Love Donna Green, 1993-10-01 Illustrated with evocative oil paintings by a celebrated New England artist an elegant keepsake book prompts mothers to write down their memories of their relationship with their daughters alongside poetry quotations and anecdotes Dad's Everything Book for Daughters John Trent, 2002 The mission is to give fathers short practical ideas to build quality relationships with their 8-12 year old daughters Mother and Daughter Record Memory Book Havoc Publishing, Linda Spivey, 1997-10

Matria Redux Tegan Zimmerman, 2023-06-23 In Matria Redux Caribbean Women Novelize the Past author Tegan Zimmerman contends that there is a need for reading Caribbean women's texts relationally This comprehensive study argues that the writer's turn to maternal histories constitutes the definitive feature of this transcultural and transnational genre Through an array of Caribbean women's historical novels published roughly between 1980 and 2010 this book formulates the theory of matria an imagined maternal space and time as a postcolonial psychoanalytic feminist framework for reading fictions of maternal history written by and about Caribbean women Tracing the development of the historical novel in four periods of the Caribbean past slavery colonialism revolution and decolonization this study argues that a pan Caribbean generation of women writers of varying discursive racial ized realities has depicted similar matria constructs and maternal motifs A politicized concept matria functions in the historical novel as a counternarrative to traditional historical and literary discourses Through close readings of the mother daughter plots in contemporary Caribbean women s historical fiction such as Andrea Levy s The Long Song Edwidge Danticat s The Farming of Bones Paule Marshall s Praisesong for the Widow and Marie Elena John s Unburnable Matria Redux considers the concept of matria an important vehicle for postcolonial psychoanalytic feminist literary resistance and political intervention Matria as a psychoanalytic postcolonial strategy therefore envisions by returning to history alternative feminist fictions futures and Caribbeans
