David Wojnarowicz - Tongues of Flame Barry Blinderman,1990 David Wojnarowicz Illinois State University.

University Galleries,1990 David Wojnarowicz - Tongues of Flame Barry Blinderman,1990 David Wojnarowicz David Wojnarowicz,1990 New York Magazine ,1991-01-07 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea David Wojnarowicz Sylvere Lotringer,Giancarlo Ambrosino,2006-11-03 Artist David Wojnarowicz on his work his aspirations his personal history his political views Wojnarowicz in dialogue with Sylve Lotringer along with personal accounts from friends and fellow artists collected after Wojnarowicz s death In February 1991 the artist David Wojnarowicz 1954 1992 and the philosopher Sylve Lotringer met in a borrowed East Village apartment to conduct a long awaited dialogue on Wojnarowicz s work Wojnarowicz was then at the peak of his notoriety as the fiercest antagonist of morals crusader Senator Jesse Helms a notoriety that Wojnarowicz alternately embraced and rejected Already suffering the last stages of AIDS David saw his dialogue with Lotringer as a chance to set the record straight on his aspirations his personal history and his political views The two arranged to have this three hour dialogue video recorded by a mutual friend the artist Marion Scemama Lotringer held on to the tape for a long time After Wojnarowicz s death the following year he found the transcript enormously moving yet somehow incomplete David was trying often with heartbreaking eloquence to define not just his career but its position in time The subject was huge and transcended the actual dialogue Lotringer then spent the next several years gathering additional commentary on Wojnarowicz s life and work from those who knew him best the friends with whom he collaborated Lotringer solicited personal testimony from Wojnarowicz s friends and other artists including Mike Bildo Steve Brown Julia Scher Richard Kern Carlo McCormick Ben Neill Kiki Smith Nan Goldin Marguerite van Cook and others What emerges from these masterfully conducted interviews is a surprising insight into something art history knows but systematically hides the collaborative nature of the work of any great artist All these respondents had at one time made performances movies sculptures photographs and other collaborative works with Wojnarowicz In this sense Wojnarowicz appears not only as a great originator but as a great synthesizer Art in the Courtroom Vilis R. Inde,1998-03-25 Providing legal analysis and touching upon social history and art history themes this work offers an objective review of five art trials Spanning the last 20 years specific areas of law are examined with each trial First and Fifth Amendments copyright law contract law valuation of art and misrepresentation Art outside of the legal vacuum has been embroiled in a battle initiated by social conservatives to promote decency Three trials involving this struggle and the National Endowment of the Arts are analyzed The valuation of art is examined in the context of Andy Warhol's estate and copyright law is considered because of the appropriation of contemporary images by Jeff Koons Although each trial is reviewed distinctly all are interwoven to present major issues relating to contemporary art Entertaining aspects of each trial contribute to the understanding of art and law For art students copyright contract and constitutional analysis in the context of actual hearings is an invaluable resource outlining afforded protections and options To scholars interested in contemporary art and its encounters with the law this text bridges the gap between two seemingly disparate worlds

Pier Paolo Pasolini for art history and practice Ara H. Merjian, 2025-12-16 Pier Paolo Pasolini 1922-1975 remains best known for his influential cinematic and literary works These attest in turn to a crucial early formation Pasolini's intermittent practice as a painter critic and historian of art Spanning the fifth century BCE to the early twenty-first century this volume's chapters reflect the breadth of Pasolini's aesthetic commitments and predilections from Greek Attic vase painting to the spread of Caravaggism from folkloric ethnography to the painting of Pablo Picasso and Andy Warhol Alongside essays examining his influence on twentieth and twenty-first century aesthetics artists of different nationality gender and generation address Pasolini's continued consequence for their own work The very notion of a politically engaged artistic practice owes a debt to Pasolini's oeuvre one he called extravagantly interdisciplinary and which finds incisive reflection in the media methods and subjects addressed in these pages

Political Disappointment Sara Marcus, 2023-05-30 Sara Marcus argues for the emancipatory potential of political disappointment the unrealized desire for liberation Exploring literature and sound from Reconstruction to Black Power from the Popular Front to second wave feminism and the AIDS crisis Marcus shows how moments of defeat have inspired new ensembles of art and activism
