Arizona Sheriff:

Maricopa County Sheriff's Office History and Pictorial, 2005 America's Toughest Sheriff Joe Arpaio, Len Sherman, 1996 Overcrowded jails and shrinking budgets equal early release for prisoners in most communities Not so in Maricopa County Arizona where Sheriff Joe Arpaio houses inmates in surplus army tents dating from the Korean War And while summer temperatures in the desert can reach 120 degrees Sheriff Joe reasons that if the tents were good enough for the troops of Desert Storm they are good enough for convicted criminals America's Toughest Sheriff is an unfiltered account of Sheriff Joe's get smart and get tough approach to jail He believes that criminals should never live better in jail than they do on the outside Called the Alcatraz of Arizona the Tent City Jail features discipline hard work and a total absence of frills By eliminating coffee and feeding convicts sandwiches at lunch Arpaio has shaved 500 000 annually from the cost of keeping prisoners And that's only the beginning of the changes he has initiated on his way to achieving an 85 percent approval rating from his constituents Citizens of the Phoenix area rave about Sheriff Joe's common sense approach to crime and about his creative ways to save taxpayers money More than 2 500 residents have volunteered for his posse performing duties from rescuing lost hikers to patrolling the malls during the holidays His innovative leadership in law enforcement is rooted in more than 30 years experience as a federal drug enforcement agent when he fought the drug trade in Turkey and Central America

remove the country's over three thousand sheriffs mostly white men wield immense power making arrests running county jails enforcing evictions and immigration laws with a quarter of all U S law enforcement officers reporting to them In recent years there's been a revival of constitutional sheriffs who assert that their authority supersedes that of legislatures courts and even the president They've protested federal mask and vaccine mandates and gun regulations railed against police reforms and ultimately declared themselves election police with many endorsing the Big Lie of a stolen presidential election They are embraced by far right militia groups white nationalists the Claremont Institute and former president Donald Trump who sees them as allies in mass deportation and border policing How did a group of law enforcement officers decide that they were above the law What are the stakes for local and national politics and for America as a multi racial democracy Blending investigative reporting historical research and political analysis author Jessica Pishko takes us to the roots of why sheriffs have become a flashpoint in the current politics of toxic masculinity guns white supremacy and rural resentment and uncovers how sheriffs have effectively evaded accountability since the nation's founding A must read for fans of Michelle Alexander Gilbert King Elizabeth Hinton and Kathleen Belew
