Around Pontardawe Images Of Wales:

Around Pontardawe Jeff Childs,1996 This book is part of the Images of Wales series which uses old photographs and archived images to show the history of various local areas in Wales through their streets shops pubs and people

Black Skin, Blue Books Daniel G. Williams,2012-09-15 Williams analyses and compares the ways in which African Americans and the Welsh have defined themselves as minorities within larger nation states the UK and US The study is grounded in examples of actual friendships and cultural exchanges between African Americans and the Welsh such as Paul Robeson s connections with the socialists of the Welsh mining communities and novelist Ralph Ellison s stories about his experiences as a GI stationed in wartime Swansea This wide ranging book draws on literary historical visual and musical sources to open up new avenues of research in Welsh and African American studies

Crowdsourcing our Cultural Heritage Mia Ridge,2016-04-22 Crowdsourcing or asking the general public to help contribute to shared goals is increasingly popular in memory institutions as a tool for digitising or computing vast amounts of data This book brings together for the first time the collected wisdom of international leaders in the theory and practice of crowdsourcing in cultural heritage It features eight accessible case studies of groundbreaking projects from leading cultural heritage and academic institutions and four thought provoking essays that reflect on the wider implications of this engagement for participants and on the institutions themselves Crowdsourcing in cultural heritage is more than a framework for creating content as a form of mutually beneficial engagement with the collections and research of museums libraries archives and academia it benefits both audiences and institutions However successful crowdsourcing projects reflect a commitment to developing effective interface and technical designs This book will help practitioners who wish to create their own crowdsourcing projects understand how other institutions devised the right combination of source material and the tasks for their crowd The authors provide theoretically informed actionable insights on crowdsourcing in cultural heritage outlining the context in which their projects were created the challenges and opportunities that informed decisions during implementation and reflecting on the results This book will be essential reading for information and cultural management professionals students and researchers in universities corporate public or academic libraries museums and archives The Architect and Contract Reporter ,1915 Let's Go: the Budget Guide to Britain and Ireland ,1994
