Engaged with the Arts John Tusa,2007-02-21 John Tusa has been Managing Director of London s Barbican Centre for more than a decade In that time he has been a notable controversialist speaking up for the need for the arts defending their achievements and arguing for more funding This selection of John Tusa s passionately argued candid and challenging essays on the arts in Britain today is informed by a lifetime s experience of the arts and a current position at the centre of the British arts scene Tusa seeks out the ways in which the arts can be made to blossom in this cultural and political climate with cuts in arts funding ever threatened His subjects include the art of living without objectives and whether leadership in the arts is a mystery or good sense He tells the true story of arts philanthropy and offers more personal pieces for example on the great power of music He also presents a light hearted ABC of the ARTS and imagines what Ten Commandments for the Arts might look like His own philosophy which informs his successful management of the Barbican is refreshing and instructive and he

of course looks to the future with prescience Most of all his is a call for us urgently to think about why art matters so crucially for us all

HALI ,2005 Language in the Media Sally Johnson,Astrid Ensslin,2018-10-18 Examining the ways in which the media represents language related issues and how it shapes and constructs what people think language is this book offers a multilingual survey of the construction of language in and by the media Tackling the big issues of identity gender youth citizenship politics and ideology across a range of mediums including television radio newspapers magazines and the internet Language in the Media brings together an international team of experts to examine how the media gives language distinctive forms and values This is an essential text for students and researchers of sociolinguistics or language and communication At a time when trust in the mainstream media is at an all time low and world leaders are using new media to deride so called fake news this classic text offers insight and critical analysis into the key issues surrounding the relationship between language the media and its audience

Water Stories from Around the World Radhika Menon,Sandhya Rao,2010 Analytische annotatie ENGELS This timely collection retells stories from mythology and folklore to focus on the need to protect conserve and value water Together with interesting facts and a timeline from earliest times it makes a creative plea to readers of all ages to treat water and by extension all life with respect Well known writers draw upon the oral traditions of the Ivory Coast China India Greece Australia North America Spain Nigeria Botswana and places beyond names to reflect upon an intrinsic connection between humans and water
