□AI Art: Perspectives on Artistry and Creation□ Etienne Noumen, This podcast and sources included explore the complex impact of artificial intelligence on art and creativity, addressing the debate around whether individuals using AI tools can be considered artists and exploring the emerging skills involved like prompt engineering and curation. They examine the ethical concerns surrounding AI art, including job displacement and the use of training data scraped from existing artwork, while also navigating the challenging legal landscape of copyright for AI-generated content, noting the US position that purely AI art is not copyrightable. The podcast highlights how online discussions reflect societal anxieties about automation and the devaluation of human skill, posing philosophical questions about intentionality and the future of human creativity in a technologically evolving world.

Craft Consciousness and Artistic Practice in Creative Writing Ben Ristow, 2021 As a mode of consciousness craft does not follow the tropes of technique and instead writers as with all artists explore material formal and aesthetic conditions through the development of an individual project and their evolution as artists over time This book examines the theories and histories that define craft as a collaborative anti capitalistic process based philosophy that intervenes in traditions that exclude some writers from making art Drawing from 25 interviews across the disciplines Craft Consciousness and Artistic Practice in Creative Writing examines how artists traverse material disciplinary generic and sociocultural factors that define them and their practice It also argues that creative writers are artists who use craft consciousness as an exploratory invention method that defies definitions of genre discipline or form Craft consciousness revolutionizes the way we conceptualize and liberate the practicing artist who teaches and designs graduate programs for creative writers Creative Psychics, the Art of Regeneration Fred Henkel,1917 Logos and Life: Creative Experience and the Critique of Reason Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka,2012-12-06 It is rare that we feel ourselves to be participating in history Yet as Bertrand Russell observed philosophy develops in response to the challenges of socio cultural problems and situations The present day philosophical endeavor is prompted not by one or two but by a conundrum of problems and controversies in which the forces carrying life are set against each other The struggles in which contemporary mankind is fiercely engaged are not confined as in the past to economic territorial or religious rivalries nor to the quest for power but extend to the primary conditions of human existence They under mine man s primogenital confidence in life and shatter the intimacy of his home on earth Philosophical reflection today cannot fail to feel the pressure of the current situation within which it unfolds Since this situation now involves the ultimate conditions of human existence its demands have at last given to philosophy the impetus and direction needed for conceiving that the first and last of its concerns should be life itself capacity When the process of making art is guided by the inner vision of our sleeping and waking dream states we connect with something larger than ourselves and rediscover that creativity can be both a spiritual path and an important life tool
