over the course of thirty years by Udo Horstmann and his wife the Horstmann collection is rather exceptional inasmuch as it offers a captivating vision of the variety of solutions adopted by black artists over the course of the centuries nearly 120 extraordinary sculptures figures masks household objects and weapons from Guinea Bissau Mali Burkina Faso Cote d'Ivoire Ghana Togo Nigeria Cameroon Gabon Congo Angola Zambia Zimbabwe South Africa Swaziland Mozambique Kenya and Sudan The origin of the artworks selected for their perfection transcending the mere utilitarian function touches all of the lands of the continent including the southern and eastern lands rarely so authoritatively represented in other collections and their execution covers an arc of time of several millennia The presence of ancient works contributes to the demolition of the preconception that has weighed unfairly until recent years on African art and that is the absence of evolution in the artistic creation of Black Africa and therefore of any historic quality This is a difficult negation to cancel if African sculpture is still often labeled as primitive Another meritorious quality of the Horstmanns lies in the fact that they chose the sculptures in their collection not out of any generic passion for the exotic and neither for any abstract demand for representativity of ethnicity or significance or destination but for their quality for the enchantment of the form or better of the forms Paging through the book the reader will discover that the artistic creation that is the need to give form to the formless is a common heritage of mankind shared by the artists of Black Africa Africa international, 1997 Le monde de Bernar Venet Alain Mousseigne, Thierry Davila, Bernar Venet, Abattoirs (Museum complex), 2010 Ethnoarts Index, 1997 Picasso's Collection of African & Oceanic Art Peter Stepan, 2006 Although he never set foot in Africa Picasso had a passion for African art Throughout the course of his life he assembled a unique collection of statues and masks Comprising more than 120 objects Picasso's private collection can now be found in museums in Paris such as the Louvre Musee Quai Branly and the Musee Picasso as well as in the private collections of members of Picasso's family This beautiful book documents the entire collection and examines it as a whole It features documentary photographs a section of stunning colour plates and detailed ethnographic descriptions of each piece providing a full account of Picasso's relationship with African and Oceanic art This important publication sheds new light on the fascination non-Western art held for one of twentieth century's most important artists Review an illuminating and handsome book copiously illustrated with fascinating original documents and excellent colour reproductions a convenient and also essential reference tool for anyone interested in this important subject an invaluable and also entertaining guide this book not only investigates Picasso's response to tribal art with unusual thoroughness but also reopens the larger question of the artist's primitivism The Burlington Magazine June 2007 Tribal Art Traffic Raymond Corbey, 2000 This publication traces the movements of hundreds of thousands of masks statues amulets shields etc from overseas tribal cultures to and within North Atlantic societies in colonial and post-colonial times While the focus is on the Low Countries and their overseas territories the Belgian Congo and the Netherlands East Indies related developments in three adjacent colonial powers Germany France and the United Kingdom are also covered as are links to the United States The milieus and locales through which tribal objects circulated and circulate are charted like colonial trading posts auction houses and museums and dealers collectors and curators relate their more recent experiences with objects in motion
