Armando Shaping Memory:

Armando Ernst van Alphen, Armando, 2000 For almost fifty years the Dutch multimedia artist and author Armando has been presenting his poems prose paintings sculpture film theatre and musical performances to an ever intrigued public In the 50s and 60s Armando was involved with experimental literary magazines and innovative movements in the visual arts In 1979 he moved to Berlin where his art became increasingly preoccupied with the Second World War and since then both his literary and visual works have been read as autobiographical relating to a youth spent under German occupation In Armando Shaping Memory art and comparative literature scholar Ernst van Alphen undertakes an expansive and revelatory exegesis of Armando's multidisciplinary work Treating the artist's oeuvre as an indivisible whole van Alphen shows how Armando's themes of faltering memory and the passage of time find entirely different expressions in each discipline Beautifully and intelligently presented in both text and image Armando Shaping Memory is a comprehensive look at the artist that places his work in an art historical and literary context

Art in Mind Ernst van Alphen, 2005-03-10 Art has the power to affect our thinking changing not only the way we view and interact with the world but also how we create it Art can be considered as a commanding force with the capacity to shape our intellect and intervene in our lives Art is a historical agent or a cultural creator that propels thought and experience forward The author demonstrates that art serves a socially constructive function by actually experimenting with the parameters of thought employing work from artists as Picasso Watteau Bacon Dumas and Matthew Barney Art confronts viewers with the pain points of cultural experience and thereby transforms the ways in which human existence is conceived

Yayoi Kusama Midori Yamamura, 2024-03-19 An examination of Yayoi Kusama's work that goes beyond the usual biographical interpretation to consider her place in postwar global art history Yayoi Kusama is the most famous artist to emerge from Japan in the period following World War II Part of a burgeoning international art scene in the early 1960s she exhibited in New York with Andy Warhol Donald Judd Claes Oldenburg and other Pop and Minimalist luminaries and in Europe with the Dutch Nul and the German Zero artist groups Known for repetitive patterns sewn soft sculptures naked performance and suggestive content Kusama's work anticipated the politically charged feminist art of the 1970s But Kusama and her work were soon eclipsed by a dealer controlled art market monopoly of white male American artists Returning to Japan in 1973 Kusama became almost as famous for her self-proclaimed mental illness and permanent residence in a psychiatric hospital as she was for her art In this book Midori Yamamura eschews the usual critical fascination with Kusama's biography to consider the artist in her social and cultural milieu By examining Kusama's art alongside that of her peers Yamamura offers a new perspective on Kusama's career Yamamura shows that Kusama who came of age in totalitarian wartime Japan embraced art as an anticonformist pursuit seeking a subjective autonomy that resulted in the singular expression of her art Examining Kusama's association with European and New York art movements of the 1960s and her creation of psychedelic light and sound Happenings Yamamura argues that Kusama and her heterogeneous peers defied and undermined various pillars of modernity during the crucial transition from the modern nation state to global free market capitalism The art market rediscovered Kusama in the 1990s and she has since had a series of high profile exhibitions

Recounting Kusama's story Yamamura offers an incisive penetrating analysis of postwar art's globalization as viewed from the periphery

The International Handbooks of Museum Studies, 4 Volume Set Sharon Macdonald, Helen Rees Leahy, 2015-07-20 The International Handbooks of Museum Studies is a multi volume reference work that represents a state of the art survey of the burgeoning field of museum studies Featuring original essays by leading international museum experts and emerging scholars readings cover all aspects of museum theory practice debates and the impact of technologies The four volumes in the series divided thematically offer in depth treatment of all major issues relating to museum theory historical and contemporary museum practice mediations in art design and architecture and the transformations and challenges confronting the museum In addition to invaluable surveys of current scholarship the entries include a rich and diverse panoply of examples and original case studies to illuminate the various perspectives Unprecedented for its in depth topic coverage and breadth of scholarship the multi volume International Handbooks of Museum Studies is an indispensable resource for the study of the development roles and significance of museums in contemporary society

Ethics and Images of Pain Asbjørn Grønstad, Henrik Gustafsson, 2012 Few phenomena are as formative of our experience of the visual world as displays of suffering But what does it mean to have an ethical experience of disturbing or traumatizing images What kind of ethical proposition does an image of pain mobilize How may the spectator learn from and make use of the painful image as a source of ethical reflection Engaging with a wide range of visual media from painting theatre and sculpture to photography film and video this interdisciplinary collection of essays by leading and emerging scholars of visual culture offers a reappraisal of the increasingly complex relationship between images of pain and the ethics of viewing Ethics and Images of Pain reconsiders the persistent and ever pertinent nexus of aesthetics and ethics the role of painful images as generators of unpredictable forms of affect the moral transformation of spectatorship the ambivalence of the witness and the representation of affliction as a fundamental form of our shared scopical experience The instructive and illuminating essays in the collection introduce a phenomenological context in which to make sense of our current ecology of excruciating images one that accentuates notions of responsibility empathy and imagination Contributors trace the images of pain across a miscellany of case studies and amongst the topics addressed are the work of artists as disparate as Doris Salcedo Anselm Kiefer and Bendik Riis photographs from Abu Ghraib and Rwanda Hollywood war films and animated documentaries performances of self immolations and incidents of police brutality captured on mobile phones

Museum Transformations Annie E. Coombes, Ruth B. Phillips, 2020-04-06 MUSEUM TRANSFORMATIONS DECOLONIZATION AND DEMOCRATIZATION Edited By ANNIE E COOMBES AND RUTH B PHILLIPS Museum

Transformations Decolonization and Democratization addresses contemporary approaches to decolonization greater democratization and revisionist narratives in museum exhibition and program development around the world The text explores how museums of art history and ethnography responded to deconstructive critiques from activists and poststructuralist and postcolonial theorists and provided models for change to other types of museums and heritage sites The volume s first set of essays discuss the role of the museum in the narration of difficult histories and how altering the social attitudes and political structures that enable oppression requires the recognition of past histories of political and racial oppression and colonization in museums Subsequent essays consider the museum s new roles in social action and discuss experimental projects that work to change power dynamics within institutions and leverage digital technology and new media

About Mieke Bal Deborah Cherry,2008-12-15 A collection of essays celebrating Mieke Bal one of Europe s foremost scholars in art history and visual studies with a stellar international reputation Brings together contributions by senior and younger scholars in the fields of art history and visual studies who reflect on Mieke Bal s writings and art practice assessing her contribution and legacies The first collection to consider her writing and art in depth and to develop and extend her thinking in substantial ways Themes include some of Bal s most important ideas and concepts in the visual field such as the theoretical object preposterous history narrativity vision and the gaze cultural memory self reflexivity of the artist the viewer the scholar The essays consider historical art the Sistine chapel Renaissance altar paintings and watercolours alongside more recent film photography graffiti interactive immersive environments online performance and areas of visual interest often positioned outside the pages of art history While Bal has unsurprisingly perhaps become a key figure in the debates between art and visual culture the extraordinarily wide range of visual materials collected here speaks of her path breaking movement between the visual registers of high art and popular cultures her resistance to clear cut distinctions between image and word
