Army Memoirs:

On Military Memoirs L.H.E. (Esmeralda) Kleinreesink, 2016-10-11 Winner of the Caforio prize for the best book in armed forces and civil military relations published between 2015 and 2016 In On Military Memoirs Esmeralda Kleinreesink offers insight into military books who were their writers and publishers what were their plots and what motives did their authors have for writing them Every Afghanistan war autobiography published in the US the UK Germany Canada and the Netherlands between 2001 and 2010 is compared quantitatively and qualitatively On Military Memoirs shows that soldier authors are a special breed that self published books still cater to different markets than traditionally published ones that cultural differences are clearly visible between warrior nations and non warrior nations that not every contemporary memoir is a disillusionment story and that writing is serious business for soldiers wanting to change the world The book provides an innovative example of how to use interdisciplinary mixed method cross cultural research to analyse egodocuments The Civil War Memoirs of a Virginia Cavalryman Robert T. Hubard, 2007-01-07 A witness who brings remarkable life and color to the Civil War in the East Robert Hubard was an enlisted man and officer of the 3rd Virginia Cavalry in the Army of Northern Virginia CSA from 1861 through 1865 He wrote his memoir during an extended convalescence spent at his father's Virginia plantation after being wounded at the battle of Five Forks on April 1 1865 Hubard served under such Confederate luminaries as Jeb Stuart Fitz Lee Wade Hampton and Thomas L Rosser He and his unit fought at the battles of Antietam on the Chambersburg Raid in the Shenandoah Valley at Fredericksburg Kelly's Ford Chancellorsville Gettysburg Bristoe Station and down into Virginia from the Wilderness to nearly the end of the war at Five Forks Hubard was like many of his class and station a son of privilege and may have felt that his service was an act of noblesse oblige Unlike many of his contemporaries however he was a keen observer and a writer of unusual grace clarity humor and intelligence The editor has fleshed out his memoir by judicious use of Hubard's own wartime letters which not only fill in gaps but permit the reader to see developments in the writer's thinking after the passage of time Because he was a participant in events of high drama and endured the quotidian life of a soldier Hubard's memoir should be of value to both scholars and avocational readers The Military Memoir and Romantic Literary Culture, 1780-1835 Neil Ramsey, 2016-12-05 Examining the memoirs and autobiographies of British soldiers during the Romantic period Neil Ramsey explores the effect of these as cultural forms mediating warfare to the reading public during and immediately after the French Revolutionary and Napoleonic wars Forming a distinct and commercially successful genre that in turn inspired the military and nautical novels that flourished in the 1830s military memoirs profoundly shaped nineteenth century British culture's understanding of war as Romantic adventure establishing images of the nation's middle class soldier heroes that would be of enduring significance through the nineteenth and twentieth centuries As Ramsey shows the military memoir achieved widespread acclaim and commercial success among the reading public of the late Romantic era Ramsey assesses their influence in relation to Romantic culture's wider understanding of war writing autobiography and authorship and to the shifting relationships between the individual the soldier and the nation The memoirs Ramsey argues participated in a sentimental response to the period s wars by transforming earlier impersonal traditions of military memoirs into stories of the soldier s personal suffering While the focus on suffering established in part a lasting strand of anti war writing in memoirs by private soldiers such stories also helped to foster a sympathetic bond between the soldier and the civilian that played an important role in developing ideas of a national war and functioned as a central component in a national commemoration of war
