Art And Emotion:

Art and Emotion Derek Matravers, 2001-01-25 The author's aim in this study is to show that what experiences of art and emotion have in common and what links them to the expression of emotion in non-artistic cases is the role played by feeling

Emotion and the Arts Mette Hjort, Sue Laver, 1997 Literaturoppgave p 283-298 Under four headings the relationship between the arts and emotions is discussed by mainly philosophers. The headings are the paradox of fiction, emotion and its expression through art, the rationality of emotional responses to art, and the value of emotion. Art forms discussed are literature, music, theatre, and visual arts.

Art's Emotions Damien Freeman, 2014-09-03 Despite the very obvious differences between looking at Manet's Woman with a Parrot and listening to Elgar's Cello Concerto, both experiences provoke similar questions in the thoughtful aesthete: why does the painting seem to express reverie and the music nostalgia? How do we experience the reverie and nostalgia in such works of art? Why do we find these experiences rewarding in similar ways? As our awareness of emotion in art and our engagement with art's emotions can make such a special contribution to our life, it is timely for a philosopher to seek to account for the nature and significance of the experience of art's emotions. Damien Freeman develops a new theory of emotion that is suitable for resolving key questions in aesthetics. He then reviews and evaluates three existing approaches to artistic expression and proposes a new approach to the emotional experience of art that draws on the strengths of the existing approaches. Finally, he seeks to establish the ethical significance of this emotional experience of art for human flourishing. Freeman challenges the reader not only to consider how art engages with emotion but how we should connect up our answers to questions concerning the nature and value of the experiences offered by works of art.

The Art of Emotional Healing Lucia Capacchione, 2006-01-10 Feelings either flow naturally like a river or get dammed up. If our emotions become blocked, we can become tense, unhappy, anxious, or depressed. This book offers simple techniques for using art to embrace, understand, and release our emotions so that we can experience a greater sense of well-being in our lives. In The Art of Emotional Healing, Lucia Capacchione presents the simple yet powerful methods she uses in her internationally acclaimed workshops, showing us how to reach inside and let our feelings out through drawing, painting, journal writing, collage making, sculpting, drumming, dancing, mask making, and more. No artistic talent or skill is required; only a desire to let go of self-criticism and discover how we really feel.

Deeper Than Reason Jenefer Robinson,2005-04-07 Jenefer Robinson uses modern psychological and neuroscientific research on the emotions to study our emotional involvement with the arts

Music, Art and Emotion Conroy Cupido,2023-03-01 This book explores the ways in which four visual artists make sense of referentialism and emotion in music By listening to five art songs by Schubert Strauss Faur and Berlioz they were inspired to create new artworks as a result of their understanding of the meaning of the art songs This was done without an understanding of the text and the artists had to rely on referential meaning in music as well as the perceived or evoked emotions elicited by listening to the art songs The artworks created as a result of this project were exhibited at the Aardklop National Arts Festival entitled Nagmusiek This was a multi modal exhibition featuring music art and text This book employs Artistic Research and Phenomenology in order to understand this phenomenon as I explored the artists creative processes experiences and the tacit knowledge embedded in their artefacts This book would provide readers access to 20 new artworks each created as a result of the artists interpretation of the meaning they ascribed to art song Their creative process is also examined and synthesised with existing literature on emotion and referentialism in music

Ages 2 4 The Academy and Literature ,1904 The Aesthetics of Emotion Gerald C. Cupchik,2016-07-28 Gerald C Cupchik builds a bridge between science and the humanities arguing that interactions between mind and body in everyday life are analogous to relations between subject matter and style in art According to emotional phase theory emotional reactions emerge in a perfect storm whereby meaningful situations evoke bodily memories that unconsciously shape and unify the experience Similarly in expressionist or impressionist painting an evocative visual style can spontaneously colour the experience and interpretation of subject matter Three basic situational themes encompass complementary pairs of primary emotions attachment happiness sadness assertion fear anger and absorption interest disgust Action episodes in which a person adapts to challenges or seeks to realize goals benefit from energizing bodily responses which focus attention on the situation while providing feedback in the form of pleasure or pain regarding success or failure In high representational paintings style is transparent making it easier to fluently identify subject matter Representing

Emotions Helen Hills,Taylor & Francis Group,2019-05-31 Juxtaposing artistic and musical representations of the emotions with medical philosophical and scientific texts in Western culture between the Renaissance and the twentieth century the essays collected in this volume explore the ways in which emotions have been variously conceived configured represented and harnessed in relation to broader discourses of control excess and refinement Since the essays explore the interstices between disciplines e g music and medicine history of art and philosophy and thereby disrupt established frameworks within the histories of art music and medicine traditional narrative accounts are challenged Here larger historical forces come into perspective as these papers suggest how both artistic and scientific representations of the emotions have been put to use in political social and religious struggles at a variety of different levels
