Art, History and the Historiography of Judaism in Roman Antiquity Steven Fine, 2013-10-10 Art History and the Historiography of Judaism in Roman Antiquity explores the complex interplay between visual culture, texts, and their interpretations, arguing for an open-ended and self-aware approach to understanding Jewish culture from the first century CE through the rise of Islam The essays assembled here range from the thick description of Josephus's portrayal of Bezalel, son of Uri, as a Roman architect through the inscriptions of the Dura Europos synagogue, Jewish reflections on Caligula in color, the polychromy of the Jerusalem Temple, new-old approaches to the zodiac, and to the Christian destruction of ancient synagogues Taken together, these essays suggest a humane approach to the history of the Jews in an age of deep and long-lasting transitions, both in antiquity and in our own time Taken as a whole, Fine's book exhibits the value of bridging disciplines The historiographical segments integrated throughout this volume offer essential insights that will inform any student of Roman and late antiquity Yael Wilfand, Hebrew University, Review of Biblical Literature 2014 American Journal of Archaeology and of the History of the Fine Arts, 1894

Congress of Arts and Science, Universal Exposition, St. Louis, 1904: History of language; history of literature; history of art, 1906 A World Art History and Its Objects David Carrier, 2008-11-28 Is writing a world art history possible? Does the history of art, as such, even exist outside the Western tradition? Is it possible to consider the history of art in a way that is not fundamentally Eurocentric? In this highly readable and provocative book, David Carrier, a philosopher and art historian, does not attempt to write a world art history himself. Rather, he asks the question of how an art history of all cultures could be written, or whether it is even possible to do so. He also engages the political and moral issues raised by the idea of a multicultural art history. Focusing on a consideration of intersecting artistic traditions, Carrier negotiates the way meaning and understanding shift or are altered when a visual object from one culture, for example, is inserted into the visual tradition of another culture. A World Art History and Its Objects proposes the use of temporal narrative as a way to begin to understand a multicultural art history History and the Fine Arts Oliver Huntington Richardson, 1910 A History of Jerusalem Karen Armstrong, 1996 Tables of European history, literature, and art, from A.D. 200 to 1822; and of American history, literature, and art John Nichol, 1884
