The Art and Thought of John La Farge Katie Kresser, 2017-07-05 The Art and Thought of John La Farge Picturing Authenticity in Gilded Age America offers an unprecedented portrait of one of the most celebrated artists of the Gilded Age and opens a window onto nineteenth century American culture The book reveals how the work of John La Farge contributed to a rich philosophical dialogue concerning the trustworthiness of human perception In his struggle against a common truth of iconic symbols presented by a new mass visual culture La Farge developed a subversive approach to visual representation that focused attention not on the artwork itself but on the complex real encounter of artist subject and medium from which the artwork came Katie Kresser charts La Farge s efforts to assert his own reality his own intrinsic uniqueness in a postwar society that increasingly based personal identity on standardized vocational labels and economic productivity La Farge s work is contrasted with that of Kenyon Cox James Whistler and Henry Adams all of whom for La Farge had fallen prey to the crass new visual environment albeit in very different ways This innovative study suggests that La Farge dealt with issues still relevant in a world characterized by ubiquitous mass media and the proliferation of normative visions

The Screen in Surrealist Art and Thought Haim Finkelstein, 2017-07-05 An interrogation of the notion of space in Surrealist theory and philosophy this study analyzes the manifestations of space in the paintings and writings done in the framework of the Surrealist Movement Haim Finkelstein introduces the screen as an important spatial paradigm that clarifies and extends the understanding of Surrealism as it unfolds in the 1920s exploring the screen and layered depth as fundamental structuring principles associated with the representation of the mental space and of the internal processes that eventually came to be linked with the Surrealist concept of psychic automatism Extending the discussion of the concepts at stake for Surrealist visual art into the context of film literature and criticism this study sheds new light on the way film thinking permeates Surrealist thought and aesthetics In early chapters Finkelstein looks at the concept of the screen as emblematic of a strand of spatial apprehension that informs the work of young writers in the 1920s such as Robert Desnos and Louis Aragon He goes on to explore the way the spatial character of the serial films of Louis Feuillade intimated to the Surrealists a related mode of vision associated with perception of the mystery and the Marvelous lurking behind the surfaces of quotidian reality The dialectics informing Surrealist thought with regard to the surfaces of the real with walls doors and windows as controlling images are shown to be at the basis of Andr Breton s notion of the picture as a window Contrary to the traditional sense of this metaphor Breton s window is informed by the screen paradigm with its surface serving as a locus of a dialectics of transparency and opacity permeability and reflectivity The main aesthetic and conceptual issues that come up in the consideration of Breton s window metaphor lay the groundwork for an analysis of the work of Giorgio de Chirico Ren agritte Max Ernst Andr asson and Joan Mir he concluding chapter consi Art and Thought A.K.
