Art As Religious Studies:

Art As Religious Studies Douglas G. Adams, Diane Apostolos-Cappadona, 2001-04-17 Art as Religious Studies Diane Apostolos-Cappadona, Doug Adams, 1993 Religion and the Arts: History and Method Diane Apostolos-Cappadona, 2017-11-06 In Religion and the Arts History and Method Diane Apostolos Cappadona presents an overview of the 19th century origins of this discrete field of study and its methodological journey to the present day through issues of repatriation museum exhibitions and globalization Apostolos Cappadona suggests that the fluidity and flexibility of the study of religion and the arts has expanded like an umbrella since the 1970s and the understanding that art was simply a visual exegesis of texts to now support the study of material popular and visual culture as well as gender She also delivers a careful analysis of the evolution of thought from traditional iconographies to the transformations once scholars were influenced by response theory and challenged by globalization and technology Religion and the Arts History and Method offers an indispensable introduction to the questions and perspectives essential to the study of this field The Art of the Sacred, 2007 Annotation The field of art and religion is fast becoming one of the most dynamic areas of religious studies Uniquely The Art of the Sacred explores the relationship between religion and the visual arts and vice versa within Christianity and other major religious traditions It identifies and describes the main historical theological sociological and aesthetic dimensions of religious art with particular attention to popular as well as high culture and within societies of the developing world Special attention is paid not only to major twentieth century masters Matisse Rothko and Moore but also to three living artists Viola Gormley and Aitchison in the context of post modern spirituality The book also attempts to locate and predict the forms and functions of such art in a changing contemporary context of obligation modernity secularism and fundamentalism Art, Creativity, and the Sacred Diane Apostolos-Cappadona, 1984 Contributors include Doug and Linda Altshuler Mircea Eliade Langdon Gilkey Barbara Novak and many others A seminal work widely adopted Religious Studies Review Interpreting Christian Art Heidi J. Hornik, Mikeal Carl Parsons, 2003 Since the iconoclastic controversies of the eighth and ninth centuries the visual arts have been the subject of much ecclesiastical discussion and contention In particular since the mid 1960s Protestant scholars and clergy have been paying more attention to the potential role of the visual arts in theology and liturgy of the Christian Church As a result numerous programs were begun under a variety of nomenclature e g Religion and the Arts Theology and the Arts etc Most of the essays in this book were originally presented as part of the Pruitt Symposium on Interpreting Christian Art held at Baylor University in October 2000 The symposium provided the opportunity to bring together scholars clergy and laity who are interested in the question of how religious art can contribute to the life of the contemporary Christian community The resulting essays are a rich fare in interdisciplinary exploration of Christian art by art historians theologians and biblical scholars Essayists include Margaret Miles Robin M Jensen Graydon F Snyder Charles Barber Anthony Cutler William M Jensen Paolo Berdini John W Cook and the editors Heidi J

Hornik and Mikeal C Parsons An Ethology of Religion and Art Bryan Rennie, 2020-02-13 Drawing from sources including the ethology of art and the cognitive science of religion this book proposes an improved understanding of both art and religion as behaviors developed in the process of human evolution Looking at both art and religion as closely related but not identical behaviors a more coherent definition of religion can be formed that avoids pitfalls such as the Eurocentric characterization of religion as belief or the dismissal of the category as nothing more than false belief or the product of scholarly invention The book integrates highly relevant insights from the ethology and anthropology of art particularly the identification of the special by Ellen Dissanayake and art as agency by Alfred Gell with insights from among others Ann Taves who similarly identified specialness as characteristic of religion It integrates these insights into a useful and accurate understanding and explanation of the relationship of art and religion and of religion as a human behavior This in turn is used to suggest how art can contribute to the development and maintenance of religions The innovative combination of art science and religion in this book makes it a vital resource for scholars of Religion and the Arts Aesthetics Religious Studies Religion and Science and Religious Anthropology

Creativity and Spirituality Earle J. Coleman, 1998-02-27 From the architecture of Frank Lloyd Wright to the rock gardens of Zen Buddhism Coleman explores applied fine and folk arts in order to uncover points of coalescence between art and religion Drawing from six living faiths Buddhism Christianity Hinduism Islam Judaism and Taoism this book philosophically analyzes relations between art and religion in order to explain how the concepts art beauty creativity and aesthetic experience find their place or counterparts in religious discourse and experience Coleman repeatedly shows that aesthetic ideas can serve as bridges to spiritual categories as when he relates aesthetic bliss to the peace that passes all understanding The author follows a three fold approach first he examines ideas and motifs from religious classics in world literature such as Lao Tzu's Tao Te Ching and The Interior Castle by Teresa of Avila in order to relate them to aesthetic phenomena Second he turns to the statements of artists such as Leo Tolstoy Vincent van Gogh Paul Gauguin Shih t ao and Wassily Kandinsky for themes and practices that have religious significance Third he analyzes and evaluates the writings of various theoreticians philosophers theologians art critics sociologists and psychologists on the relations between art and religion Coleman demonstrates for example that Martin Buber's I Thou relationship captures much that is central to art creativity and aesthetic experience as well as to religious life Among the themes that receive sustained treatment are the varieties of union in art and religion the child as a paradigm for artists and saints and creativity as essential to religion Finally the author critically weighs proposed distinctions between art and religion and between the broader categories of the aesthetic and the spiritual rejecting some and showing how others are compatible with his proposal that the aesthetic and the spiritual are cognate categories

When Art Disrupts Religion Philip Salim Francis, Randall Herbert Balmer, 2017 When Art Disrupts Religion lays bare the power of encounters with the arts to unsettle and overturn deeply ingrained religious beliefs and practices Grounded in the accounts of more than 80 Evangelicals who experienced such a sea change of religious identity the book bridges the gap between aesthetic theory and lived religion while exploring the interrelationship of religion and art in the modern West

Art and Religion in Eighteenth-Century Europe Nigel Aston, 2009-07-15 Eighteenth century Europe witnessed monumental upheavals in both the Catholic and Protestant faiths and the repercussions rippled down to the churches religious art forms Nigel Aston now chronicles here the intertwining of cultural and institutional turmoil during this pivotal century The sustained popularity of religious art in the face of competition from increasingly prevalent secular artworks lies at the heart of this study Religious art staked out new spaces of display in state institutions palaces and private collections the book shows as well as taking advantage of patronage from monarchs such as Louis XIV and George III who funded religious art in an effort to enhance their monarchical prestige Aston also explores the motivations and exhibition practices of private collectors and analyzes changing Catholic and Protestant attitudes toward art The book also examines purchases made by corporate patrons such as charity hospitals and religious confraternities and considers what this reveals about the changing religiosity of the era as well An in depth historical study Art and Religion in Eighteenth Century Europe will be essential for art history and religious studies scholars alike Visual Faith William A. Dyrness, 2001-11 An intriguing substantive look into the relationship between the church and the world of art

Van Gogh and the Art of Living Anton Wessels, 2013-08-09 Vincent van Gogh believed that one had to learn to read just as one had to learn to see and learn to live Van Gogh conveyed a message in his work about the path that he himself followed that was more true to life the path that human beings walk in their turbulent existence the pilgrimage along the various stages of the road of life He does not speak about the meaning of life but about the true art of living It is fascinating to see and read the moving way in which he wrestled with the deep human questions of the whence why and whither of life He did not see himself doing this on his own but acknowledged kindred spirits and allies in preachers preacher poets painters writers and other artists who also attempted to find their own way through life in a similar fashion Van Gogh was aware like no other of his duty and task in life his vocation as human being and artist That means that he was well acquainted with loneliness fear and despair including suicidal tendencies Nevertheless he understood himself as cut out for faith rather than resignation Human beings follow their life s path through storms and dangers on land and on sea where the star of the sea the Virgin Mary helps them and provides light Van Gogh rejected the unhealthy sickly forms of religion electing instead to embrace authentic forms of piety

Religion as Art Thomas R. Martland, 1981-01-01 Religion in its most authentic part is an art form Religion does what art does This idea is richly illustrated and supported by materials of diverse origin The vast range of the author s experience in the arts and in religious texts and works of aesthetics allows him to lay hold of a great mass of disparate material and to bring out new dimensions in all of it He always has just the example he needs at his fingertips a Tibetan Buddhist text next to a French impressionist painting and a remark about early Banogu counterpoint and each example is seen in a new and interesting way Through this gentle yoking together of heterogeneous materials common roots are discovered Most studies of art and religion describe and explain them as data Thomas Martland identifies them as expressions of ideals and asks what they are when they are authentic rather than merely what they are when they are self identified as art and religion This is an identification through assessment not an Aristotelian classification and the means of assessment are provided In the Beginning is the Icon Sigurd Bergmann,2016-04-08 Icons provide depictions of God or encounters with the divine that enable reflection and prayer In the Beginning is the Icon explores the value of these images for a theology of liberation Iconology art theory philosophical aesthetics art history and anthropology are integrated with rigorous theological reflection to argue that the creation and observation of pictures can have a liberating effect on humanity In presenting art from across the world In the Beginning is the Icon reflects the ethnocentricity of both art and religious studies and offers a new cross cultural approach to the theology of art The Use of Art in Religious Education Albert Edward Bailey,1922 The Oxford Handbook of Religion and the Arts Frank Burch Brown,2018 This volume offers 37 original essays from leading scholars on the crucial topics issues methods and resources for studying and teaching religion and the arts Art & Religion Von Ogden Vogt,1921 Art, Modernity and Faith George Pattison,1991 The Forge of Vision David Morgan,2015-10-20 Religions teach their adherents how to see and feel at the same time so learning to see is not a disembodied process but one hammered out on the forge of human need social relations and material practice Therefore religions may be studied through the lens of salient visual themes This book tells a history of Catholic and Protestant Christianity since the sixteenth century by selecting visual themes that have shaped the development of the religion throughout the modern era Chapters examine a variety of visual practices including imagination envisioning nationhood the likeness of Jesus modern art as a spiritual quest the material life of words and the importance of images for education devotion worship and domestic life Provided by publisher Religious Studies, Theology, and Human Flourishing Justin Thomas McDaniel,Hector Kilgoe,2024 Religious Studies Theology and Human Flourishing contains essays by nine prominent scholars of religious studies and theology on approaches to cultivating human flourishing within the field of positive psychology Part of The Humanities and Human Flourishing series this volume represents perspectives from north India to the buckle of the American Bible Belt and explores the implications of religious studies and theology for well being illuminating connections between theory pedagogy and practice
