Civilizations Felipe Fernandez-Armesto, 2001-09-14 In Civilizations Felipe Fernandez Armesto once again proves himself a brilliantly original historian capable of large minded and comprehensive works here he redefines the subject that has fascinated historians from Thucydides to Gibbon to Spengler to Fernand Braudel the nature of civilization To Fernandez Armesto a civilization is civilized in direct proportion to its distance its difference from the unmodified natural environment by its taming and warping of climate geography and ecology The same impersonal forces that put an ocean between Africa and India a river delta in Mesopotamia or a 2 000 mile long mountain range in South America have created the mold from which humanity has fashioned its own wildly differing cultures In a grand tradition that is certain to evoke comparisons to the great historical taxonomies each chapter of Civilizations connects the world of the ecologist and geographer to a panorama of cultural history In Civilizations the medieval poem Sir Gawain and the Green Knight is not merely a Christian allegory but a testament to the thousand year long deforestation of the trees that once covered 90 percent of the European mainland The Indian Ocean has served as the world's greatest trading highway for millennia not merely because of cultural imperatives but because the regular monsoon winds blow one way in the summer and the other in the winter In the words of the author Unlike previous attempts to write the comparative history of civilizations it is arranged environment by environment rather than period by period or society by society Thus seventeen distinct habitats serve as jumping off points for a series of brilliant set piece comparisons thus tundra civilizations from Ice Age Europe are linked with the Inuit of the Pacific Northwest and the Mississippi mound builders and the deforesters of eleventh century Europe are both understood as civilizations built on woodlands Here of course are the familiar riverine civilizations of Mesopotamia and China of the Indus and the Nile but also highland civilizations from the Inca to New Guinea island cultures from Minoan Crete to Polynesia to Renaissance Venice maritime civilizations of the Indian Ocean and South China Sea even the Bushmen of Southern Africa are seen through a lens provided by the desert civilizations of Chaco Canyon More here are fascinating stories brilliantly told of the voyages of Chinese admiral Chen Ho and Portuguese commodore Vasco da Gama of the Great Khan and the Great Zimbabwe Here are Hesiod's tract on maritime trade in the early Aegean and the most up to date genetics of seed crops Erudite wide ranging a work of dazzling scholarship written with extraordinary flair Civilizations is a remarkable achievement a tour de force by a brilliant scholar Art in World History Mary Hollingsworth, 2003 Throughout history art has been an essential component of every era and civilization With over 1 300 illustrations and written for both students and general readers Art in World History offers an impressive new perspective on the artistic and architectural expressions of cultures across the world and throughout time It examines art and its role in history chronologically and between East and West as it was influenced by religions conquests and civilizations From the cave paintings of Lascaux to Picasso from the pyramids of ancient Egypt to Chinese terracotta Art in World History vividly demonstrates how human perceptions of art and space have evolved with the ages The Arts ,1929 African American Political Thought Melvin L. Rogers,Jack Turner,2024-05-31 African American Political Thought offers an unprecedented philosophical history of thinkers from the African American community and African diaspora who have addressed the central issues of political life democracy race violence liberation solidarity and mass political action Melvin L Rogers and Jack Turner have brought together leading scholars to reflect on individual intellectuals from the past four centuries developing their list with an expansive approach to political expression The collected essays consider such figures as Martin Delany Ida B Wells W E B Du Bois James Baldwin Toni Morrison and Audre Lorde whose works are addressed by scholars such as Farah Jasmin Griffin Robert Gooding Williams Michael Dawson Nick Bromell Neil Roberts and Lawrie Balfour While African American political thought is inextricable from the historical movement of American political thought this volume stresses the individuality of Black thinkers the transnational and diasporic consciousness and how individual speakers and writers draw on various traditions simultaneously to broaden our conception of African American political ideas This landmark volume gives us the opportunity to tap into the myriad and nuanced political theories central to Black life In doing so African American Political Thought A Collected History transforms how we understand the past and future of political thinking in the West Art Education ,1895 The Nation ,1923 Evolution in Science, Philosophy, and Art Brooklyn Ethical Association,1891 Lectures on Art: The philosophy of art in Italy.
