Rosenthal-Pubul, 2019-01-01 In this work Alexander Rosenthal Pubul presents a broad examination of the ancient philosophical question What is the good life while addressing how the liberal arts can help us to answer this question Greek philosophy distinguished between the noble what is good in itself from the merely useful good for something else From thence follows the distinction between the liberal arts which pursue such noble goods and the mechanical arts which are only instrumental For Aristotle the most noble and excellent good is wisdom itself Hence the theoretic life devoted to the love of wisdom for its own sake philosophy is the highest and the most excellent This work theorizes the origins of modernity in a rebellion against this Greek conception resulting in a complete inversion of the classical hierarchy Sir Francis Bacon reconceiving the purpose of knowledge as power enthroned technology over philosophy and the liberal arts The unfolding of the modern Baconian revolution progressively sidelines the liberal arts as practical economic and technical utility become the standard of value In assessing this problem the book engages in a capacious journey across disciplines like philosophy history art politics and science It is also a veritable tour across the Western intellectual tradition including Socrates Plato Aristotle Cicero Seneca Thomas Aquinas Bacon Descartes Hume Kant Nietzsche Dewey Berdyaev Einstein and Heidegger It pleads the urgent need to preserve the humanizing cultural ideals of the ancient classics against the modern tyranny of utility and the dangers of a new barbarism Catalogue of the Library of the National Gallery of Canada: Brit - Draf Ottawa.
