Collected Poems 1940 1990:

Collected Poems 1940-1990 Maurice Lindsay, Selected Poems. 1940-1990 Carl F. Heintze, 2013-11 These poems were gathered from more than one hundred others I have saved over the years and those which I wished people to read I stopped writing poetry in my fifties with an occasional lapse and these verses span approximately the time from when I entered college until I became a grandfather I am proud of one or two but less enthused by others Changing Identities, Ancient Roots Ian Brown, 2006-12-20 The aim of this book is to place developments in the region of West Dunbartonshire that is the area covered by Clydebank Dumbarton and the Vale of Leven running up to the southern end of Loch Lomond in the context of the larger national and indeed international historical developments to which they contribute and which they may illustrate The region concerned is a Scotland in microcosm It contains an early Celtic capital in Dumbarton the preferred palace and the site of the death of Robert the Bruce in Cardross the birthplace of Tobias Smollett key cradles of the Industrial Revolution and the home of the winners of the earliest football World Cup It is through the prism of the region's specificities that the development of the nation and its social and political economy as a whole can be seen in a very particular light This history uses a regional basis to examine large scale issues through specific local and regional events It is therefore not simply a local history although it will clearly have an additional local market not otherwise likely to buy such a book It is a substantial study of interest to academics and historians worldwide both for its contents and its method which without being entirely pioneering is innovative It is also accessible to interested general readers Edinburgh Book of Twentieth-Century Scottish Poetry Maurice Lindsay, 2019-08-05 No detailed description available for The Edinburgh Book of Twentieth Century Scottish Poetry The Mainstream Companion to Scottish Literature Trevor Royle, 2012-01-06 The Mainstream Companion to Scottish Literature is the most comprehensive reference guide to Scotland's literature covering a period from the earliest times to the early 1990s It includes over 600 essays on the lives and works of the principal poets novelists dramatists critics and men and women of letters who have written in English Scots or Gaelic Thus as well as such major writers as Robert Henryson William Dunbar Gavin Douglas Allan Ramsay Robert Fergusson Robert Burns Walter Scott Robert Louis Stevenson and Hugh MacDiarmid the Companion also lists many minor writers whose work might otherwise have been overlooked in any survey of Scottish literature Also included here are entries on the lives of other more peripheral writers such as historians philosophers diarists and divines whose work has made a contribution to Scottish letters Other essays range over such general subjects as the principal work of major writers literary movements historical events the world of printing and publishing folklore journalism drama and Gaelic A feature of the book is the inclusion of the bibliography of each writer and reference to the major critical works This comprehensive guide is an essential tool for the serious student of Scottish literature as well as being an ideal guide and companion for the general reader Prizing Scottish Literature Stevie Marsden, 2021-02-15 This history of the Saltire Society Literary Awards demonstrates the significance the awards have had within Scottish literary and cultural life The book explores how the prizes have influenced understandings of Scottish literature over eight decades and explores what they reveal about the wider mechanisms of how literary prize culture functions in the UK today

Scottish Literature Since 1707 Marshall Walker, 2017-07-12 Marshall Walker's lively and readable account of the highs and lows of Scottish literature from this important date to the present addresses the important themes of democracy power and nationhood Disposing of stereotypical ideas about Scotland and the Scots this fresh approach to Scottish literature provides a critical interpretation of its distinctive style and presents the reader with an informative introduction to Scottish culture Coverage includes the Scottish enlightenment and the world of Boswell and David Hulme to the Scottish Renaissance associated with Hugh MacDiarmid Developments in the contemporary literary scene include John McGrath's theatre Company and the fiction and poetry of Alastair Gray and Ian Crichton Smith Particular attention is given to the work of Scottish women writers such as Lady Grizel Baillie and Liz Lochhead who have been much neglected in previous literature

Accompanied Voices John Greening, 2015 An anthology of poems about specific composers The poems address composers from the Renaissance through the present but they were all written since the advent of commercial recordings The poems are arranged chronologically by composer With an introduction and indices

The Short Writings of Nelson Algren Richard F. Bales, 2022-09-15 Nelson Algren was a renowned Chicago writer known for his social commentary and his novels like The Man with the Golden Arm and A Walk on the Wild Side Although he continues to be remembered almost exclusively for his novels this book aims to highlight the value and influence of his short form works Before he died in 1981 Algren had amassed a genre defying body of work including short stories articles poems and book reviews The present book features a comprehensive analysis and discussion of Algren's lost literature including everything but his novels One of the pieces covered is a masterpiece of race relations written in 1950 more than 60 years before the galvanization of the Black Lives Matter movement Another is a scathing poem about Algren's transatlantic love affair with Simone de Beauvoir Both items are reprinted in the book courtesy of the Algren estate This book also includes references to Algren's works that have yet to be studied by Algren scholars

Donald Davie, Samuel Menashe, Allen Curnow Donald Davie, Samuel Menashe, Allen Curnow, 1996 This is the sixth in a series which aims to show the richness and diversity of contemporary poetry It offers representative poems of three poets Samuel Menashe Allan Curnow and Donald Davie who chose the poems themselves

Collected Poems, 1945-1990 Ronald Stuart Thomas, 1993

In Search of Serif Books, the Stanley Press & Joseph Mardel, Publisher of Maurice Lindsay's Hurlygush and Sydney Goodsir Smith's Under the Eildon Tree, & Taking Serious Note of William Maclellan & Callum Macdonald Duncan Glen, 2006
This story of Duncan Glen's search for Joseph Mardel a forgotten man of twentieth century Scottish literary publishing and printing is a good read. It is also a contribution to the story of the continuing Scottish literary renaissance that began in the 1920s with Hugh MacDiarmid's volumes of poems in Scots and continued throughout the twentieth century. Thanks to the heroes of this book it may even be continuing today. The Serif Books imprint may be largely forgotten but as Glen shows Joseph Mardel was in the late 1940s and through the 1950s a key performer in the impressive story of the revival of literary publishing in Scotland. The heroes of this book are the publishers of the 1940s and 1950s Joseph Mardel of Serif Books William Maclellan Callum Macdonald and Calum and Kenneth Campbell of Caledonian Press and Castle Wynd Printers but they were brave on behalf of poets novelists dramatists critics and editors whose names vibrate through this work.
