

A World Of Fun

David Sherman, Dan Cragg

A World Of Fun:

Starfist: A World of Hurt David Sherman, Dan Cragg, 2009-01-16 With its down and dirty depiction of warfare written by men who know what it's like to be under fire the Starfist saga is a runaway success across America Now in the explosive new Starfist adventure packed with fierce action and danger Marines at war in future space find themselves pitted against a faceless insatiable foe bent on destroying them And that's just for starters How bad is the upcoming mission facing the battle hardened Marines of 34th Fleet Initial Strike Team FIST the military's unofficial alien first contact force Bad enough to make the brass take the unprecedented step of issuing 34th FIST replacements for combat losses before the Marines even leave their home base In response to a series of unexplained deaths on a lonely outpost on the frontiers of human space 34th FIST has been dispatched to investigate and eradicate the problem Beyond that the information available to Gunnery Sergeant Charlie Bass and his men is meager even by Marine standards No one knows what awaits them for the newly colonized world remains largely unexplored That means 34th FIST can expect creatures they have never seen or even heard of much less trained for It could be Skink acid shooters could be anything for the barren station has several secrets all of them deadly But the last thing these Marines expect to find is themselves in the middle of an invasion and a mysterious war with none other than 34th FIST as Enemy 1 Whatever happens they'll deal with it because they're Marines determined to be ready and to give worse than they get

Media and the Make-Believe Worlds of Children Maya Gotz, Dafna Lemish, Hyesung Moon, Amy Aidman, 2014-04-04 Media and the Make Believe Worlds of Children offers new insights into children's descriptions of their invented or make believe worlds and the role that the children's experience with media plays in creating these worlds Based on the results of a cross cultural study conducted in the United States Germany Israel and South Korea it offers an innovative look at media's role on children's creative lives This distinctive volume outlines the central debates and research findings in the area of children's fantasy worlds and the media provides a descriptive account of children's make believe worlds and their wishes for actions they would like to take in these worlds highlights the centrality of media in children's make believe worlds emphasizes the multiple creative ways in which children use media as resources in their environment to express their own inner worlds and suggests the various ways in which the tension between traditional gender portrayals that continue to dominate media texts and children's wishes to act are presented in their fantasies The work also demonstrates the value of research in unveiling the complicated ways in which media are woven into the fabric of children's everyday lives examining the creative and sophisticated uses they make of their contents and highlighting the responsibility that producers of media texts for children have in offering young viewers a wide array of role models and narratives to use in their fantasies The downloadable resources provide full color images of the artwork produced during the study This book will appeal to scholars and graduate students in children and media early childhood education and developmental psychology It can be used in graduate level courses in these areas
