Dry Bones:

Traditional Music in Coastal Louisiana Joshua Clegg Caffery, 2013-11-05 Alan Lomax's prolific sixty-four year career as a folklorist and musicologist began with a trip across the South and into the heart of Louisiana's Cajun country during the height of the Great Depression. In 1934 his father John, then curator of the Library of Congress's Archive of American Folk Song, took an eighteen-year-old Alan and a 300-pound aluminum disk recorder into the rice fields of Jennings along the waterways of New Iberia and behind the gates of Angola State Penitentiary to collect vestiges of African American and Acadian musical tradition. These recordings now serve as the foundational document of indigenous Louisiana music. Although widely recognized by scholars as a key artifact in the understanding of American vernacular music, most of the recordings by John and Alan Lomax during their expedition across the central southern fringe of Louisiana were never transcribed or translated, much less studied in depth. This volume presents for the first time a comprehensive examination of the 1934 corpus and unveils a multifaceted story of traditional song in one of the country's most culturally dynamic regions. Through his textual and comparative study of the songs contained in the Lomax collection, Joshua Clegg Caffery provides a musical history of Louisiana that extends beyond Cajun music and zydeco to the rural blues, Irish and English folk songs, play party songs, slave spirituals, and traditional French folk songs that thrived at the time of these recordings. Intimate in its presentation of Louisiana folklife and broad in its historical scope, Traditional Music in Coastal Louisiana honors the legacy of John and Alan Lomax by retrieving these musical relics from obscurity and ensuring their understanding and appreciation for generations to come. Includes complete transcriptions of the 1934 Lomax field recordings in southwestern Louisiana. Side-by-side translations from French to English. Photographs from the 1934 field trip and biographical details about the performers.

Dry Bones Anthology 2000 Phillip Tomasso, III, Jimmie R Rankin, 2000-10 Historic Negro Spirituals as Biblical Interpretation Christa Klingbeil Dixon, 2024-12-15 In the 1960s Dr. Christa K. Dixon's 1935-2003 work analyzing how the famous Negro Spirituals interpreted the Bible was published in German, Rediscovered, and newly translated. Drs. Kim R. Harris and Daniel L. Smith, Christopher present Dixon's text accompanied by two new essays as both modern critique and a long overdue appreciation of Dixon's pioneering study. Great Messages Margaret Morenike Doherty, 2009-11 Out of my worst messes have come my best messages. There is always a wilderness experience before the promised land. It is always darkest before dawn. There cannot be testimonies without tests, nor can there be triumphs without trials. The good news is that there is always a great calm to every great storm in your lives. Join Margaret Morenike Doherty in her quest to spread the gospel to the uttermost ends of the earth. Great Messages: Words of Encouragement for Life's Worst Messes takes readers on an exciting, uplifting, and thrilling experience with messages that were birthed from some of life's most difficult situations. Doherty's skillful combination of Scripture and real-life experience helps readers realign their perspective, reminding them that even when things seem hopeless, there is still reason to have faith.
