Post-war Spanish Women Novelists and the Recuperation of Historical Memory Patricia O'Byrne,2014 Reconstructs through testimonial literature the repression of women during the Franco years and recovers the writings of some of the forgotten post war women novelists The passing of Spain's Law of Historical Memory 2007 marked the official recognition of the need to confront a violent and painful past Article 2 makes reference to specific groups who experienced discrimination including religious and ethnic communities no reference is made to the gender repression endured by women enforced by a patriarchal regime through its legislation and policies with the active support of the Church and the Women's Section of the Falange Revised narratives of the period that have emerged in recent decades have raised issues in relation to the reliability and selectivity of memory and its ongoing mediation by intervening events While documentary sources of the period are prejudicial contemporaneous post war testimonial novels provide an invaluable resource in reconstructing the past particularly the novels of women writers This book draws on their narrative to reconstruct the female experience of the post war years and in particular on the writings of novelists whose work has undeservedly been disregarded Neither the experience of women under Franco nor the narrative of women writers of the period should be forgotten Patricia O Byrne lectures in Hispanic Studies and Comparative Literature at Dublin City University

Competitive Dreams Haden James, 2021-11-22 With the murder of the serial killer known as The Ghost Maker the serial killer club he ran became dormant Now someone calling themselves Mictlan the Collector has taken control of the defunct club He s arranged a competition for a select group of members The serial killer with the most points at the end will win a million dollars in cryptocurrency and he s chosen Kansas City as the hunting grounds Fearing this could happen after The Ghost Maker s death the NSA had an operative infiltrate the nefarious club The operative gives the SCTU advanced warning of the competition To stop it Aislinn Cain and the SCTU must identify and capture Mictlan the Collector before the first day Identifying and capturing a serial killer is never easy and Mictlan complicates the issue by requiring competitors to take a victim to gain admittance The competitors have less than one week to complete the entrance task which divides the resources of the SCTU between trying to identify Mictlan the Collector and identifying the serial killers participating in the competition For a chance at a million dollars in cryptocurrency serial killers will travel far and wide to participate With visiting serial killers comes new signature methods requiring the SCTU to reach out to their law enforcement contacts all over the world to at least attempt to find their place of origin and gain any files on them that might exist The situation is dire enough that the CIA activates their own special black books operation referred to as The Home Defense Program forcing the SCTU to coordinate with the CIA as well as local law enforcement Finally as the start date of the competition gets nearer panicked politicians want to enact martial law for the Kansas City Metro area Convinced that martial law will result in more deaths than the competition the SCTU is racing against the ticking clock fighting their limited manpower and extreme panic to save their home city from becoming a grisly battlefield
