Behind Moroccan Walls:

Behind Moroccan Walls Henriette Celarié, 1931 Behind Moroccan Walls Henriette Celarie, 2013-10 This is a new release of the original 1931 edition Short Story Index, 1953 Quinquennial supplements 1950 1954 1979 1983 compiled by Estelle A Fidell and others published 1956 1984 Hired Daughters Mary Montgomery, 2019-02-19 Hired Daughters examines a fading tradition of domestic service in which rural girls familiar to ordinary Moroccan families were placed in their homes until marriage In this tradition of bringing up the girls are considered daughters of the house and part of their role in the family is to help with the housework Gradually this tradition is transforming into one in which workers unfamiliar to their host families are paid a wage and may not stay long but where the Islamic ethics of charity religious reward and gratitude still inform expectations on both sides Mary Montgomery examines why Moroccans so often talk about their domestic workers as daughters what this means for workers and employers and how this is changing in contemporary Morocco Prioritizing the experiences and perspectives of these women Montgomery charts the tension that has developed between socially embedded loyal domestic workers who operate within narratives of kinship and obligation and women who seek greater individualization privacy and self empowerment Hired Daughters offers a nuanced understanding of a world that bridges public and private morality and money family and outsiders In doing so it provides an intimate consideration of contemporary Moroccan households as economic enterprises and sites of navigation between the traditional and the global

The Age of Walls Tim Marshall, 2018-10-09 Tim Marshall the New York Times bestselling author of Prisoners of Geography offers a readable primer to many of the biggest problems facing the world Daily Express UK by examining the borders walls and boundaries that divide countries and their populations The globe has always been a world of walls from the Great Wall of China to Hadrian's Wall to the Berlin Wall But a new age of isolationism and economic nationalism is upon us visible in Trump's obsession with building a wall on the Mexico border in Britain's Brexit vote and in many other places as well China has the great Firewall holding back Western culture Europe's countries are walling themselves against immigrants terrorism and currency issues South Africa has heavily gated communities and massive walls or fences separate people in the Middle East Korea Sudan India and other places around the world In fact more than a third of the world's nation states have barriers along their borders Understanding what is behind these divisions is essential to understanding much of what's going on in the world today Written in Tim Marshall's brisk inimitable style The Age of Walls is divided by geographic region He provides an engaging context that is often missing from political discussion and draws on his real life experiences as a reporter from hotspots around the globe He examines how walls borders and barriers have been shaping our political landscape for hundreds of years and especially since 2001 and how they figure in the diplomatic relations and geo political events of today Marshall is a skilled explainer of the world as it is and geography buffs will be pleased by his latest Kirkus Reviews Accomplished well researched and pacy The Age of Walls is for anyone who wants to look beyond the headlines and explore the context of some of the biggest challenges facing the world today it is a fascinating and fast read City AM UK The Publishers Weekly ,1930 Walls Marcello di Cintio,2013-08-20 What does it mean to live against a wall Travel to the world s most disputed edges to meet the people who live alongside the razor wire concrete and steel and how the structure of the walls has influenced their lives In this ambitious first person narrative Marcello Di Cintio shares tea with Saharan refugees on the wrong side of Morocco s desert wall He meets with illegal Punjabi migrants who have circumvented the fencing around the Spanish enclave of Ceuta He visits fenced in villages in northeast India walks Arizona s migrant trails and travels to Palestinian villages to witness the protests against Israel s security barrier From Native American reservations on the U S Mexico border and the Great Wall of Montreal to Cyprus s divided capital and the Peace Lines of Belfast Di Cintio seeks to understand what these structures say about those who build them and how they influence the cultures that they pen in He learns that while every wall fails to accomplish what it was erected to achieve the walls are never solutions each wall succeeds at something else Some walls define Us from Them with Medieval clarity Some walls encourage fear or feed hate Some walls steal Others kill And every wall inspires its own subversion either by the infiltrators who dare to go over under or around them or by the artists who transform them The Moslem World ,1929 The
